RUDE THOUGHTS FROM THE EDITORIAL PEN

It is very hard to convince young persons of eighteen or twenty years of age that their tastes are not as fully matured and judgment as ripe as is one of forty.

What a wonderful gift to be blessed with the attractiveness that makes every one wish to know the owner better, and yet it is a gift easy to possess or cultivate. It is about as elusive as the perfume of a flower, the bloom of the peach, or the song of a bird's twitter. It is only a smile, a courteous deed, an unselfish act performed at just the right time and place.

The capacity to enjoy life is one great thing, to be able no matter what happens to wear a serene face. If things are not as we would wish, enjoy what we can, and hope for better times. There are no more unattractive persons living than those who never enjoy life, who look upon it as a vale of tears, who if they do take pleasure in anything, do so under protest. The most unpromising conditions of life may be made to yield us some good if we look for it, and the looking for it will do us good even if we do not find it; the dwelling on the disadvantages not only sours, but shuts off all hope of our seeing any possible good if it should be there. So, if we would make ourselves attractive in the best sense of the word, cultivate a capacity of pleasure in the little things, the bird songs that waken us in the morning and we will never lack material to interest us, for our lives are made up of little pleasures, little troubles and small things generally.

Cultivate a little more sentiment indulge now and then in a little romance, open the windows of your soul to the south, and let the soft breezes blow through and perfume up your rusty old heart a bit. It will not harm you, and it will make you an infinitely more pleasant companion than you are now.

HOW GIRLS MAY SUCCEED.

Some of you are out in the world earning your own living; you have had to do it to help some one at home as well as take care of yourself. You are up on a high stool looking at tiresome figures in black and white; you are ringing out the changes of a letter or a law deed on a typewriter; you are standing behind a counter catering to the whims and wants of thousands of people; you are working away reading proof, and wondering why people don't write plainly. But no matter what you are doing, you will never succeed in this world and you will be of no worth to the people who employ you unless you do the best you can. Do it for your own sake. Don't slight any work, no matter how poor it may seem to you—the work becomes great and noble the very second you put a great and noble determination into it. Of course you get tired, but every time you feel that tired feeling coming over you, stop for a minute, and give your eyes or hands a rest, and remember that the work done in the right spirit is the only work fit to offer God himself, and that is the way and spirit in which you ought to work.

By doing the best you can, by being just as patient as you can, your work is sure to receive recognition and that may mean more money and less work to you, because after a while the toil that seems so hard at first is going from mere force of habit to become easier, and you yourself, by doing good work are always smoothing out the pathway of the future. Make the drudgery divine and don't call it drudgery. Do what your hands find to do with a glad heart and don't think that you are the only woman in the world that has to work to earn her daily bread, but be thankful that God has given you ability with which to do it.

To be a mother, to be some man's inspiration, to live in the heart of the children; to be the center about which cluster life's holiest associations, surely this is the greatest blessing heaven can give, the greatest honor earth can bestow. When the sorrows and sacrifices, the loves and joys, dreams, hopes, ambitions, of prerogatives of motherhood are thine woman, thou hast come to thy kingdom.

The ideal household is one where the parents manifest that fine courtesy that is to marry that aroma to a flower. Springing from mutual consideration, in time it grows to be involuntary as the act of breathing. To enumerate and classify such tokens of good breeding and fine manners is as impossible as to define music. They gild every action, they soften every vocal chord. From "morn 'till dewey eve" they appear and re-appear.

From the morning when the Creator first called into being woman to be man's helpmeet on down through the centuries until this eventful period in which we live, in all the hopes and aspirations which have stirred men's souls in all the struggles and crises of the great drama called life, struggles with self and sin, with passion and pride, woman has ever stood by man's side, his noblest, his truest, purest, most disinterested friend, pleading, praying, whispering words of encouragement, lifting him in strong arms of love toward heaven; and 'tis not her fault it he enters not its golden portals.

No individual in the world can do a mother's work for her.

J. M. Hewitt, a popular druggist at Greensburg, Ky., says: "We use Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in our own household and know it is excellent." For sale by all dealers.

Is there anything in all this world that is of more importance to you than good digestion? Food must be eaten to sustain life and must be digested and converted into blood. When the digestion fails the whole body suffers. Chamberlain's Tablets are a rational and reliable cure for indigestion. They increase the flow of bile, purify the blood, strengthen the stomach, and tone up the whole digestive apparatus to a natural and healthy action. For sale by all dealers.
