Items of Interest Gathered From in and Near Our Sister Town Each Week

CLOSES ON WEDNESDAY

—Remember the Farmers Institute here June 29—Saturday.

—Vegetables of all kinds, peaches and apples are plentiful on our streets now.

—Children's Day will be held at the Methodist church at 11 o'clock a. m., next Sunday week, which will be first Sunday in July.

—Mr. Henry C. Hight comes to the front with a bantam rooster which is 18 years old. Mr. Hightsays this bantam still crows in the early morn to arouse him from sweet dreams of a life that is past.

—Burnice F. Britt and Miss Millie Alley were married in Oxford last Saturday. It was quite a surprise to his people and friends in this town. They are in Henderson for a few days.

—The "Sun" Beam Missionary exercises were held at the Baptist church last Sunday night. Dr. Sykes, of Wake Forest, gave an eloquent and appropriate lecture to the children.

—A large crowd went to Oxford last Saturday to attend the annual celebration of St. John's Day. We learn that it was the largest crowd of people ever seen in Oxford on this occasion.

—H. G. Bragg brought us a cotton bloom Monday. It was a red one so it must have bloomed Sunday. This is the first one we have seen and guess it is the first from Mr. Bragg's neighborhood. Next.

—Capt. Kearney and the military boys are still in hopes of going to Anniston, Ala. The company is in fine shape now and everything is ready for camp, even the "hams and chickens are ready for Uncle Bill."

—Many relatives and friends attended a birthday reception at Mr. A. L. Allen's last Sunday in honor of Miss Susie Allen's 13th birthday. All seemed to enjoy themselves and left at a late hour wishing Miss Susie many happy birthdays. The presents were numerous and costly.

—Dr. B. W. Kilgo, director of the State Test Farms, Maj. W. A. Graham, Commissioner of Agriculture and the test farm committee, consisting of R. W. Scott, A. W. McCullum, E. M. Bledsoe, I. H. Kearney are in the tobacco belt around Reidsville and Durham looking after a suitable farm for tobacco for the Agricultural Department and the United States government experimental work. They will leave for the east in the black belt soon.

—A very sad accident occurred in Louisburg last Monday when the Louisburg train cut off both legs of flagman Gee, who's home is in Richmond. He was coupling cars next to the engine and in some way his foot slipped and he fell beneath the tender and had both legs almost severed below the knee. He was taken to a hospital in Raleigh immediately after the arrival of the train here. On the return of the train from Raleigh it was reported that the doctors thought they could save one leg. His father is yard master for the Seaboard in Richmond.

It is now well known that not more than one case of rheumatism requires any internal treatment whatever. All that is needed is a free application of Chamberlain's Liniment and massaging the parts at each application. Try it and see how quickly it will relieve the pain and soreness. Sold by all dealers.

Mrs. Mary Winston Dead.

Mrs. Mary Winston, widow of the late Henry Winston of Youngsville, died last Thursday night at the residence of her son-in-law, T. H. Whitaker on Mason street.

Mrs. Winston had been in feeble health for several years. She was 83 years old and was the youngest of eleven children all of whom preceded her to the grave several years. She is survived by two daughters and two sons, Mrs. T. H. Whitaker of this place, and Mrs. Robert Underwood of near Youngsville, Messrs. Jack and Lee Winston, of Youngsville, and a host of grandchildren and great grandchildren. The funeral services were held from the Christian church at Youngsville and were conducted by Rev. Mr. Wicker, of Elon College, assisted by the Rev. Mr. Harrell, of the Baptist church of this place. The interment was at the family burying ground at the old Duncan Winston place near Youngsville. A large crowd attended the funeral. The pallbearers were her grand sons, George Whitaker, Carl Whitaker, Luther Whitaker, Earl Underwood, Will Hardister, Henry G. Winston, Herbert Underwood.

Man Soughs and Breaks Ribs

After a nightful coughing spell a man in Neenah, Wis., felt terrible pains in his side and his doctor found two ribs had been broken. What agony Dr. King's New Discovery would have saved him. A few teaspoonful ends a late cough, while persistent use routs obstinate coughs, expels stubborn colds or hoarseness, restores the lungs. "I feel sure it is a Godsend to humanity," writes Mrs. Effie Morton, Columbia, Mo. "For I believe I would have consumption today, if I had not used this great remedy." Its guaranteed to satisfy, and you can get a free trial bottle or 50 cent or $1.00 size at Aycock Drug Co.

Personals.

Miss Riggan, of Littleton, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Gupton on Green street.

Miss Lena Barrow, who has been visiting at B. A. White's for several days, returned to her home in Raleigh last Friday.

I. H. Kearney went to Greensboro Monday in the interest of the Agricultural Department.

Darward B. Kearney went to Oxford last Friday to visit relatives.

A sprained ankle may as a rule be cured in from three to four days by applying Chamberlain's Liniment and observing the directions with each bottle. For sale by all dealers.

Elect Officers

The I. O. O. F. Lodge held their election of officers last Tuesday night for the next six months as follows: A. O. Perry, N. G., J. E. Nicholson, V. G., J. S. Roberson, Secretary, B. A. White, Treasurer.

Move on Now says a policeman to a street crowd and whacks heads if it don't. "Move on now," says the big, harsh mineral pills to bowel congestion and suffering follows. Dr. King's New Life Pills don't bulldoze the bowels. They gently persuade them to right action, and health follows. 25 cents at Aycock Drug Co.

Installation of Officers

Franklinton Lodge No. 123 A. F. & A. M. met in special session Tuesday night June 24th and installed the newly elected officers for the ensuing Masonic year: B. F. Bullock, W. M., A. O. Perry, S. W., E. J. Cheatham, J. W., B. A. White Secretary, B. F. Cooke, Treasurer, J. C. Fogleman, S. D., G. R. Moye, J. D., B. J. Blackley and I. G. Stanton, Stewards.

A CONFIRMED STATEMENT

Evidence Louisburg Readers Will Appreciate.

Doan's Kidney Pills have done splendid work in this locality.

Have merited the unstinted praise they have received.

Here's evidence of their value that none can doubt.

It's testimony from this locality twice-told and well confirmed.

Such endorsements are unique in the annals of medicine.

Should convince the most skeptical Louisburg reader.

A. A. Tyson, 124 Lexington St., Rocky Mount, N. C., says: "I think just as highly of Doan's Kidney Pills today as I did when I publicly endorsed them in January 1908. I have had no trouble from my kidneys or back since I took this remedy. My kidneys were weak for years and I was compelled to get up six or eight times at night to pass the kidney secretions. I had dull pains across my loins and suffered intensely from backache. When I heard about Doan's Kidney Pills, I began their use. As soon as I began taking them they helped me and I continued their use until the symptoms of my complaint disappeared.

For sale by all dealers. Price, 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

WAGONS—Hickory wagons, Piedmont wagons, Thornhill wagons, Columbia wagons, Webber wagons and all steel wagons; no wood about it. We sell on time and in justice to our customers, (justice the greatest and rarest of virtues.) We do not sell on a credit unless your name is registered on our books, or have the general reputation of a debt paying man before the war, that is to say registered on the tax books under the "Grand father Clause," giving in tax over your exemption. It matters not what you want nor when you want it nor when you want to pay for it, come in and I'll make you a price. We also would lend a little money to prospective customers. Our hat is in the ring, not in the dirty game of politics, but to sell good on time.

No Goods Delivered in Town
