CLOSES ON WEDNESDAY

—N. Y. Gully lost a fine horse last Saturday at his farm near town.

—I. H. Kearney lost a fine mule last Thursday night from overwork and drinking two much cold water while hot.

—Rev. R. C. Sandling and daughter, Mrs. I. L. King and children, of Clinton, are visiting relatives in town and the country.

—Mr. John Westley Mitchell, of Granville county, spent a week with his daughter, Mr. D. W. Fowler, on South Hillboro street.

—Ballard-Cheatham Co., have put down a very broad concrete walk in front of their store which adds much to that part of the town.

—"Children's Day" was celebrated at the Methodist church last Sunday morning. A large crowd was in attendance and the children's singing and recitations were much enjoyed.

—We are informed that there is a man in the Popes neighborhood, who has bought a new cow that gives such rich milk he has to "skim off the cream for the calf" to keep from making him sick.

—John Gohsen, a highly respected colored man living on I. H. Kearney's land died sudden last Sunday morning. He remarked to his wife that he felt bad and lay down across the bed and when she went to him he was dead.

—The family of the late Mr. C. L. Fleming desires to thank the good people of Franklinton for their kindness to him and them during his sickness, death and funeral. They greatly appreciate their thoughtful kindness.

—Mrs. James Burnett, former resident of this place, died in Roanoke Rapids Monday and was buried in Fairview Cemetery, Franklinton, Tuesday afternoon. The funeral was from the Baptist church at 3 o'clock and was conducted by Rev. Mr. Harrell, pastor of that church.

—Retraining showers were welcomed Tuesday, as the farmers were getting very much discouraged at the present prospects for a cotton crop. From indications now there will be not over 40 per cent of a crop of cotton and corn is clear out of it in this section on most of the farms. Cotton must be not less than 20 cents for farmers to pay out.

—Mr. W. P. Montgomery died last Saturday night at 11 o'clock at his home near town. He was 68 years old and leaves a host of relatives and friends to mourn their loss. He was buried Monday at the family burying ground at the late Dr. Person place by the Masonic order of this place. The services were conducted by Rev. Mr. Starling and Rev. W. W. Rose of the M. E. church.

—The "soldier" boys left on time last Friday night in good spirits and with a happy and patriotic feeling of a "good time" for the next ten days. They arrived at Annsion Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock and on account of a wreck there were no tents and the boys had to eat and sleep on the cars till about the middle of the afternoon Sunday. It seems they run into a rainy spell and plenty of mud and slippery hills. Their camp is a mile and a half from the station, in the hills and woods.

—Mr. Luther Fleming died last Saturday morning at 10:30 o'clock at his home on Mason street. He had been in very feeble health for several months. He is survived by a widow and five children—three boys and two girls. The burial was at Pope's Chapel Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Mr. Fleming's home county was Warren. He has two brothers and two sisters living in Wayne county and two in Youngsville. He was 50 years old. The services were conducted at the grave by Rev. W. W. Rose assisted by Rev. Mr. Banks, of the Christian church.

be the fatal end.

You will gladly profit by the following experience.

Tik the honest statement of a sufferer who was cured.

A. S. Henn, 321 Montgomery St., Henderson, N. C., says: "I have tested Doan's Kidney Pills thoroughly and know that they act just as represented. For a long time my back troubled me and there was so much lameness and soreness in my loins that I could not hardly straighten after stooping. My kidneys did not do their work as they should and the kidney secretions were highly colored. After I had tried several remedies without finding relief, I heard of Doan's Kidney Pills. In a short time this remedy removed the lameness and pains in my back and also corrected the trouble with my kidneys."

BETTER MEDICINE THAN CALOMEL

Dodson's Liver Tonic, a Safe Vegetable Liquid, Now Takes the Place of Calomel, the Powerful Mineral Drug.

Many people know the danger of calomel, yet they take it because they know of nothing better. Other people are not afraid of calomel because they do not understand what a dangerous drug it is.

Nobody needs to take dangerous calomel (which is made from mercury) if they live near a drug store where Dodson's Liver Tonic is sold.

Scoggin Drug Co., sells Dodson's Liver Tonic, and guarantees it to be a perfect substitute for calomel. It is a pleasant tasting vegetable tonic, that lives up the liver without causing any restriction of habit or diet. It has none of the bad after-effects of calomel and is safe for children as well as grown-ups.
