

TAR DROPS.

Senator Simmons will speak in Louisburg October 15.

-In a short while the market house will be ready for occupancy.

-Look out for the circus. Their advertisement appears in another column.

-If your business is worth your time it is worth advertising in the TIMES.

-The new gts of the Hill Live Stock Co., is almost in readiness for the season.

-The Wood Supply Co., has an advertisement on the seventh page. Look it up.

-Your attention is called to the new advertisement of Sanders the Jeweler in another column.

-Mrs. Caddie Strickland has moved with her daughter, Mrs. W. M. Pleasants, on Cedar street.

-The agents of the Downey & Wheeler's shows were busy putting up their advertisements around town the past week.

-There are many changes of advertisements in this issue. It will be to your interest to read them and profit by them.

-Announcements have been received here to the effect that Miss Ruth Mann and Mr. Garland Ricks will be married on Wednesday, December 18th.

-Through the kindness and leniency of Mr. J. S. Place and his efficient corps of painters and McKinnis Bros. Co., the editor has succeeded in making arrangements and is having his house painted. It is so unnatural for such improvements to take place with an editor that if he should wander into the home of any of his neighbors they will do us a favor to "show him the way to go home."

See Dr. Rapport at the Louisburg Hotel Wednesday, Sept. 26th. The Dr. takes a personal interest in each pair of glasses he fits, and if long experience in one line of practice is a factor, he can certainly please you.

Centreville Items

The farmers around here are quite busy picking cottons.

Miss Viola Sheerin, of Centreville, has returned home after a visit to Rocky Mount.

We are glad to know that our Sunday school is improving. A good many came out last Sunday and had a very good school.

Our Superintendent, Mr. Artur Shearin has taken a position at Nashville.

Misses Lucy Dement and Lutie Thompson, of near Centreville, were pleasant visitors at Mr. Albert Dements, of English, last week.

Mr. Floyd Parrish, of Schloss, was in our midst last Sunday.

Our protracted meeting will begin the fourth Sunday night at the academy. Rev. Mr. Thompson will occupy the pulpit at Serepta Sunday morning.

With best wishes to the TIMES and its many readers.

LOVE AND HAPPINESS.

An article that has real merit should in time become popular. That such is the case with Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has been attested by many dealers. Here is one of them. H. W. Hendrickson, Ohio Falls, Ind., writes: "Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the best for coughs, colds and croup, and is my best seller." For sale by all dealers.

Haggard, Specific Co., Atlanta, Ga.
Gentlemen:—I have used your tablets for indigestion and have found them to be just what you claim for them. I have tried several remedies, but did not get any relief until I used your tablets. I would cheerfully recommend your tablets as a cure for indigestion.
Yours truly, S. H. CHAMBERLAIN, M. D.
Try them at our risk. If they do not benefit you, money returned. See a list for sale by Agents Linn Co.

FIRST NATIONAL BANK
The Safest place for your harvest money is in this bank
Look at these two men. They have been to market their cotton. One put his money in the bank and the other didn't. They were held up on the way home. The silly fellow who wanted to take his money home had to "deliver" to the bank. The other was able to "give them the laugh"—his money was in the bank.
Take a lesson from this—put your harvest money in this bank like all other successful farmers. It is the safest place—withdraw it whenever you pleased.
