RUDE THOUGHTS FROM THE EDITORIAL PEN

WHAT TO TEACH A GIRL.

Teach her to arrange the parlor and the library.

Teach her to say "No" and mean it, or "Yes" and stick to it.

Teach her how to wear a calico dress and wear it like a queen.

Teach her how to sew on buttons, darn stockings and mend gloves.

Teach her to dress for health and comfort as well as for appearance.

Teach her to cultivate flowers and to keep the kitchen garden.

Teach her to keep the neatest room in the house.

Teach her to have nothing to do with intemperate or dissolute young men.

Teach her that tight lacing is uncomely as well as injurious to health.

Teach her to regard morals and habits and not money when selecting her associates.

Teach her to observe the old rule, "A place for everything and everything in its place."

Teach her the important truism: That the more she lives within her income the more she will save, and the further she will get away from the poor house.

Teach her that music, drawing and painting are real accomplishments in the home, and are not to be neglected if there is time and money for their use.

SPOTLESS REPUTATION.

You have probably been more or less ill used by the world. If not it is because you are not old enough or do not amount to much. You may expect to have your reputation hauled and overhauled by the gossips, and those will not all be women either. While we would not like to be held responsible for all that is said at sewing circles and ladies' tea-parties, neither would we be willing to answer for all the conversation at banks, groceries and other places where men congregate. What post-mortem examination of dead characters! What sumptuous dishes of tittle-tattle are concocted here! What fires of martyrdom are here kindled about innocent victims! How quickly and beautiful the heads fall beneath the ax of the self-appointed executioners. Talk of gossip as something light and airy too feathery almost to grasp! It is a serpent, with its head held high in market places and public meetings, its folds coiling on every side.

THREE STAGES IN LIFE.

The three great stages of our life are birth, bridal and burial. To the first we bring nothing but weakness; for the last we have only dust. But here at the altar, where life joins life, the pair come throbbing up to the holy men, whispering the deep promises that arms each with the other heart to help on in the life struggle of care and duty.

The beautiful will be there borrowing new beauty from the scene; the gay and the frivolous will look solemn for now, and youth will come to gaze on all that its sacred thoughts pant for; and age will totter up to hear the old words repeated again, that to their own lives have given the charm or the sorrow. Some will weep over it as though it were a tomb; some will laugh as though it were a joke; but two must stand by it, for it's fate, not fun, this everlasting looking of our lives. And now, can you, who have queened it over so many bended forms, come down at last to the frugal diet of a single heart?

Hitherto you have been a clerk, giving your time to all the world. Now you are watched—buried in one particular bosom, making only hours and ticking to the beat of his heart, where time and feeling shall be in unison until those lower ties are lost in the higher wedlock where hearts are united around the great central heart of all.

Many Driven From Home

Every year, in many parts of the country, thousands are driven from their homes by coughs and lung diseases. Friends and business are left behind for other climates, but this is costly and not always sure. A better way—the way of multitudes—is to use Dr. King's New Discovery and cure yourself at home. Stay right there, with your friends, and take this safe medicine. Throat and lung troubles find quick relief and health returns. Its help in coughs, colds, grip, croup, whooping cough and sore lungs make it a positive blessing. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by Ayer's Drug Co.
