TAR DROPS.

Senator Simmons will speak in Louisburg October 15.

-The safe of the Farmers Nationa Bank arrived the past week and was placed in position Tuesday.

-Attention is called to the change of advertisement of Mrs. A. M. Hall in this issue. She will make the announcement of her fall millinery later.

-The future hope for hygiene lies in the schooling of today. The prevent of unnecessary sickness is chiefly a question of education.

-R. Z. Egerton has a change of advertisement in this issue which contains a lot of shoe talk. It will be to your interest to look it up and read it.

-The public is invited to an ice-creat supper at Pearce's Academy, Friday night Oct. 4th. There will be several features of interest besides that of eat

-Open wide the windows; keep the schoolroom air as much like the outdoer air as possible. Contagious discases are seldom if ever contracted in outdoor air.

-Rev. Walter M. Gilmore, of the Baptist church, addressed the Woman's Missionary Union of the Tar River Association, now in session at Gardner's church, Thussday night.

-Never put pencils or pens in your mouth. The last mouth they were in may have been an effected mouth. Germs of diptheria, scarlet fever, typhoid, or other diseases can be carried on pen cils and pens.

-McKinne Bros. Co., are adding an iron room and vault to the rear of their stere. The addition is being made of brick. They are also rearranging their show windows and will have a much prettier store when it is all completed.

-It is said that apples may be kept two years by wrapping them in newspapers so as to exclude the air. The newspapers must, however, be one on which the subscription is paid in full, or the dampness resulting from the "due" will cause the fruit to spoil.

-It is claimed on good authority that next to a monkey wrench, a hair pin is the most useful invention. A woman can open a time lock, burglar-proof safe with a measley little hair pin. They use them to scratch their heads, button their shoes, pick their teeth, punch bed bugs out of cracks, run into cakes to see if they are sufficiently baked, clean finger nails, fasten up stray bangs, pick out nuts, lift stoye lids, clean their cars and do many other

STEADFAST CONFIDENCE.

The Following Statemen Should Form Conclusive Proof of Merit to Every Louisburg Reader.

Could stronger proof of the merit of any remedy be desired than the statements of grateful endorsers who say their confidence has been undiminished by lapse of time? These are the kind of statements that are are the sind of smallements that are appearing constantly in your local papers for Doan's Kidney Pills. They are twice-told and confirmed with new enthusiass. Can any reader doubt the following? It's from a resident of this locality.

Mrs. M.J. Brown, 548 H. Har
gett St., Rulegh, N. C., saye: "I have no reason to change my high opinion of Doan's Kidney Pills which I mulleds averaged. which I publicly expressed some years ago. The secretions from my kidneys were in bad shape and I had other symptoms of kidney and bladder trouble. I consulted doctors and used several remedies but I tound no relief until I used Doan's Kidney Pills. They improved my condition in every way and restored my kidneys to a normal condition."

Paint

There are two good respons for paint ing often-enough or aren' so-often. One to look prosperous; two, to be so.

Nothing does see more credit or gives one more eredit than paint supplemented of course by what goes with it; and paint costs nothing does not have a controlled by the first cost is so one of a gellon put-on; but it seems more when that in the property; avec, it there is level to the first cost is so one of gellon put-on; but it seems more when that in the property; avec, it there is level to see the paint of the property; avec, it there is the property is the property; avec, it there is the property is the property in the property; avec, it is the property is the property in the property; avec, it is the property is the property in the property in the property is the property in the property in the property is the property in the property in the property is the property in the property in the property is the property in the property in the property is the property in the property in the property

SALIVATED BY

DANGEROUS CALOMEL

If You Ever Saw a Man Salivated You Don't Want Any Bore Calomel Yourself

There's so real reason why a person should take calomel anyway, when fifty cents will buy a large bettle of Dodson's Liver fone—a perfect substitute for calomel. It is a pleasant tasting vegetable liquid which will start the liver just as agrely as calomel, and which has absolutely no bad after effects.

Children and grown recope cent take
