

What "Rizo Says."

The following item is borrowed from the Raleigh Daily Times noted correspondent Rizo. He has evidently sized the matter up from a comparison of the past and present and makes such a good synopsis we give it here for our readers. We are very sorry we cannot give you the photo of the writer also:

The way some of these nice Raleigh girls prattle around the streets these cold days, freezin' an sufferin' from the chilly weather is soun' awful. They don't deserve near as much pity as the poor little ragged kid who ain't got more'n a handful of clothes to his name. Here's an original poem (aint that a good way to spell poem?) that was sent me. I say original because it was that when I was wrote. It is entitled, "Sally Fewclothes," and it goeth thusly:

"Little girl, you look so small, Don't you wear no clothes at all? Don't you wear a shimmy-skirt? Don't you wear a petty-skirt? Just your corset and your hose— Are these all your underclothes?"

TAR DROPS.

—Get the fresh air habit. —Everything has gone Democratic. —The only night air that is injurious is last night's. —The hookworm campaign began at Franklinton Tuesday. —It's a fine little boy at the home of Mr. J. H. Southall. —Mr. Foster Brown has taken a position in the postoffice. —Mr. M. T. Howell is pushing the work on his residence on South Main street. —We wish to announce to the public that we now have a plenty "Land Posted" cards on hand. —The average man requires eight hours' sleep every night. Most of us sleep too little and eat too much. —Don't permit your palate to get your stomach into trouble. Taking a pill does not solve the diet problem. —Now that the election is over let's everybody lay aside all little differences and resume our business and social matters so if nothing had happened. —Forgive the friend for anything he said or did unpleasant in the past primary and election and start over again with good feelings. —This week's issue of the TIMES contains sixteen pages, and you should ask your carrier for all 'should you receive only a part. —Supt. R. C. Beck informs us the reason for the lights being cut off Sunday and Monday nights so early was the lack of shavings. —It's impossible to determine the real value of advertising in the TIMES. Even cows have begun calling in to see some of our larger advertisers. —The Jackson Tri-State Motor Car Co., received a pretty new Jackson automobile the past week. Its beautiful red color makes it very attractive. —Mr. R. Z. Egerton says in his new advertisement that he has some wonderful bargains for late fall shopping. It will pay you to read what he says. —As yet none of the friends of the editor of the TIMES has slipped a turkey in our chicken yard for our Thanksgiving dinner. Now don't all of you come at once.

Centreville Items.

Miss Viola Arrington, of Arcola, arrived Sunday to take charge of the primary work in Centreville Academy. We wish her much success in her work. Mr. John Winston, of Youngsville, visited his daughter, Miss Mary Winston, last week. Miss Ruby Winston, of Youngsville, arrived last week to take charge of the Peares school. Miss Mamie Dickson, of near Franklinton, passed through our town last week on her way to Wood Academy to take up her work as principal. Mr. Walter Strange, of Mapleville, passed through our town Sunday.

Mr. George Parrish, who has been working for some time at the county home, spent Saturday and Sunday with his family.

Mr. Johnnie Neal, who has been ill for several days, returned to his work at Bunn Saturday.

Miss Hattie Neal left Monday to take charge of her school at Sandy Creek. We wish her much success.

Some of our people attended the box party at Cedar Rock last Saturday night and report a nice time.

Centreville is a lively little town, as there are so many school teachers around. Only seven of us.

Some very pleasant callers from Louisburg came down Sunday on their car.

Miss Louisa Jarman and her little nieces, Esther and Lucy Andrews, of Ingleside, spent last Sunday in our town.

Our Sunday school is progressing very nicely and the attendance is good, yet we hope to have more of the older people come out and help us in our work.

There is to be a box party at Centreville Academy Friday night, November 29th. The proceeds will go for Academy improvements. The public is cordially invited. M. L.

Mrs. Bagley's Appointments.

Mrs. L. W. Bagley, of Littleton, president of the Woman's Missionary Union of the Tar River Association, will do some special work in Franklin county next week in the interest of the missionary societies. She is thoroughly interested in her work and arouses enthusiasm wherever she goes. The following is a list of appointments for next week: Maple Springs church, Sunday, Nov. 17, 11 a. m., Mt. DUKE, Pastor.

The self-made man is unable to see where he could have made any improvement on his work.

Bunn Items.

The grounds have been cleared off for the new school building and we learn that work will soon begin on the building.

D. T. Hollingsworth's new store on Main street is now completed and will soon be open for business.

Mrs. W. H. Horton, who has been sick for some time with typhoid fever, died Friday afternoon last. The remains were taken to the family burying ground at Mr. S. H. Horton's about four miles from Bunn, where they were tenderly laid to rest.

Work is going forward on the erection of J. H. Weath's furniture store on Main street. When completed this will add much to the looks of our little town.

W. S. May has accepted a position with J. H. Weathers & Co., as clerk.

We are very sorry to state that Mr. Tommy Horton is critically ill with typhoid fever.

A teachers meeting was held at the Academy last Friday afternoon. Many teachers from all over the county were present. Assistant County Superintendent Miss Arrington conducted the meeting. E. M. H.

All members of the Modern Woodmen of America, are requested to send or bring their policies and 25 cents to J. W. King for change to new rates. This is important as the policies will have to be sent to headquarters at once. J. W. King, Clerk.

All young widows are not merry, but some of them will be if the men say 'yes' before leap year ends.

Royal Baking Powder Absolutely Pure

The Woman Makes the Home

She makes it best who, looking after the culinary department, turns her back resolutely upon unhealthful, or even suspicious, food accessories. She is economical; she knows that true economy does not consist in the use of inferior meat, flour, or baking powder. She is an earnest advocate of home made, home baked food, and has proved the truth of the statements of the experts that the best cooking in the world today is done with Royal Baking Powder.
