

ONLY 17 MORE DAYS IN WHICH TO DO YOUR BUYING BEFORE XMAS

Remember you can accomplish much in the way of buying and saving during the remaining days simply by coming to see us. We still have a stock representing a cost of $35,000.00 which must be disposed of by the night of December 24. In order to do this we are making enormous reductions most every department. Such cutting and slashing of prices never before heard of in this vicinity.

This is no "hot air talk" but a fact easily realized by just a look at us seeing for yourself. Note prices below.

Nearly all of the farmers are now about through housing their crops. Some few have some more corn to get in yet. We are glad to see some sewing right much grain.

G. R. Wood has led the farmers in winning prizes this year in our vicinity on making corn. He made an average of 52 bushels per acre. Little Buck Murphy, one of the corn club boys, was next. He made 45 bushels per acre.

Mr. J. G. Murphy has bought another fine young colt. It seems as though he is fond of the trade as he has been having such good luck.

Mr. J. K. Brewer, of Louisburg, was in our midst the last week. We were glad to see him, for he has many warm friends of this community.

Red Cross Seals.
More than forty cities in North Carolina have indicated their attention to place Red Cross Christmas Seals on sale this year.

Many other cities have signified their intention of selling the seals, but have not yet indicated the number desired. The seals are furnished through the State Red Cross Seal Commission in Charlotte. They sell at one cent each and all the money received from the sale goes toward fighting tuberculosis, 75 per cent remaining in the city where the seals are sold.

F. W. JUSTICE.

Miss Viola Pearce spent last Saturday night with Miss Nallie Collins, returning home on Sunday.

Miss Annie Collins was the happy guest of her brother, Charlie, on last Sunday evening.

Of course yes. Mr. Garland Parrish, of near Centerville, was on our streets last Sunday on his "new rubber tire buggy."

Little Monkey Griffin, of near Sandy Creek, spent Saturday night and Sunday with his little friend Lather Collins.

Though not surprising but sad, the Death Angel came and called our neighbor and good old friend Mr. Themas Wood from us on Thursday night the 21st. He was a good neighbor and a faithful member of the church. He being some over 70 years of age and only nineteen days difference in his and his wife's death. She died on the 2nd inst. He leaves two sons, two brothers, two sisters, several grand children and a lot of friends to mourn his departure.

Elder J. J. Wilson, of near Baileys, was in our midst on last Sunday and preached at the Free Will Baptist church at Dickens. He made a grand talk for about half an hour to all the young and old Christians, and to the world, after which he took for his text, "It is finished," and preached one of the best sermons that has ever been preached in our midst.

Our Sunday school is progressing nicely now. And though not as large attendance as there was in the summer, we have a very good attendance.

Good wishes to all
DANY.
