CLOSES ON WEDNESDAY

Mr. J. F. Parker spent Friday and Saturday with Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Ballard, returning to New York Saturday night.

Mrs. B. W. Ballard, after a ten weeks stay in Atlanta, returned home Saturday with Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Cheatham and little son.

Mr. G. F. Parker, of New York, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Ballard.

Misses Edna and Ruth Barkley, of Weldon, sisters to our townman, Mr. D. E. Barkley, are visitors here.

Mr. J. F. Mulligan the good roads builder leaves here for Henderson Tuesday to take charge of the good roads building in Vance county. Mr. Erp, of Mooresville, will take charge of the good road building in this township.

A family touring the country went into camp outside the corporate limits Sunday night.

Dr. Wilcox, of Carthage, spent Tuesday in our city. He possibly may locate here some time in the future.

Messrs. Jacob and Walter Parker, of New York, are visitors at Mr. B. W. Ballards.

Chief Cooke seized a large package of booze at the express office Tuesday. The package was tagged to N. Allen and supposed to contain six gallons.

A young woman claiming to be a Mexican, driving a "Donkey Cart" passed through our town last Monday. She is making a trip across the United States for a wager of $1000. She says she started from New York January 28th. She has a trip before her if she goes at the slow speed she was making when she left town.

The Burnett popular shaving parlor has secured the services of Mr.

J. E. James, of Durham. Mr. James we learn is an expert in the tonsonial art, and we are sure will prove an elevation to the Burnette company.

Mr. Penny and wife left last Thursday for Henderson where he takes a situation. Mr. Penny for a long while worked with the Burnett Barber Shop Company.

Several from our town went to Louisburg last Monday, we suppose most of them had business with the County Commissioners as that day was first Monday.

Our town is suffering with an ice famine this week. We have had no ice since Sunday morning. The dealers here say they can't get it as the demand is more than the production.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Collins, of Sanford, are visiting her parents Mr. and Mrs. James C. Sandling, of Gum Spring.

I. H. Kearney went to Raleigh last Tuesday.

Ex-Sheriff H. C. Kearney returned from Washington, D. C., Monday evening on No. 3. He left here with the old "Vets" to go to Gettysburg, but we learn he went no further than Washington.

The farmers say that the crops have grown more in the last two weeks than in six weeks before, so they figure that this makes the crops only one week late when before the last rains they counted the crops six weeks later.

The Cambridge Players are billed to appear at the graded school auditorium tonight. They have good music and come highly recommended, and we are sure will have a full house.

M. F. Allen has purchased the Clegg property on Clegg heights. This is the building removed from the old site farther up the street when D. E. Barkley built his new residence. The house has been remodeled and repainted and is a desirable home. The family of Mr. A. L. Allen will occupy the house.

We have tried to make this department interesting and of benefit to our town and its people, but we are greatly discouraged some times, by not having the support of the citizens in giving us the news and giving the Times their advertisements to help the paper in return for what it does for us free of charge.

The Methodist and Baptist Sunday Schools hold their annual picnic at Bloomsbury Park Raleigh, next Monday July 14th. The train leaves Franklinton at 9 a. m. returning will leave Union Station at 7 o'clock p. m. Round trip 75 cents. Children 5 to 12 half fare. For further information apply to Committee of Arrangement. C. S. Williams, A. S. Joyner, R. O. Parnell, J. E. Nicholson, B. F. Cooke, B. A. White and E. M. Edwards. League ball game Raleigh vs Winston-Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Byrum spent last week visiting in Durham, Raleigh and other cities in this state.

The Childrens Day at the Methodist church last Sunday was a success and reflects much credit on the teachers for the careful training of the children, especially the little ones or the infant class, under the care of Miss Elma Vann. A large crowd of visitors attended and all enjoyed the programme.

The little three year old boy of Ed Lee Long was carried to the hospital in Raleigh to have removed a nickel which the boy swallowed last Sunday a week ago. It seems the nickel is lodged in his swallow and can't be moved. An operation was to have been performed at Rex Hospital Monday. He also has a penny in his stomach which he swallowed several days before he did the nickel.

Delightful Porch Party.
Miss Martha Harris charmingly entertained a few friends Friday morning at her hospitable home, in honor of her guest Mrs. Tyler Wheeler, of Scotland Neck.

The tables and chairs were placed on the north porch for a game of rook. The porch was artistically decorated with ferns and potted plants. Miss Susie McGhee presided at the punch bowl.

To each guest was presented a dainty score card with fourth of July decorations and tiny flags. An exciting game of progressive rook ensued. Miss Kate Ballard winning the prize presented it to Mrs. Wheeler, the guest of honor. Delicious refreshments were served.

Those present were Misses Kittie Foster, Susie McGhee, Sne Cheatham, Eleanor Vann, Josephine Henley, Mary Staunton, Mattie and Kate Ballard, Frances Winston, Nellie Conway, Mesdames A. S. Joyner, D. E. Barkley, R. B. White and Tyler Wheeler, of Scotland Neck.

The King of all Laxatives.

For constipation, headaches, indigestion and dyspepsia, use Dr. King's New Life Pills. Paul Mathulka, of Buffalo, N. Y., says they are the "King of all laxatives. They are a blessing to all my family and I always keep a box at home." Get a box and get well. Price 25c. Recommended by Aycocke Drug Co.
