Ten Questions for Mr. Hughes.

Political interest centers just now on the speech Judge Hughes is soon to make formally accepting the Republican nomination for President. The ears of the country are wide open to hear what he will have to say. So far, in such meager statements as he has given to the press of the country, the G. O. P. candidate has dealt mostly in glittering generalities. He is expected really to say something particular and definite with regard to his policies, when he makes his formal speech of acceptance.

Meanwhile, the New York World, the paper which submitted ten questions to Colonel Roosevelt a few years ago, has put ten questions to Judge Hughes. The Colonel has not yet answered the questions the World submitted to him and it is generally recognized today that his failure to answer them finally brought his political downfall. Will Judge Hughes undertake to answer the World when he makes his speech of acceptance? Eagerly will the country watch and wait. Here are the World's ten questions:

1. Why is Wall Street for Hughes?
2. Why is the German vote for Hughes?
3. Why are the great financial interests that are still plotting to substitute a central bank for the Federal Reserve System for Hughes?
4. Why are the tariff monopolists who dictated the schedules of the repudiated Payne-Aldrich tariff for Hughes?
5. Why are the chief opponents of American neutrality for Hughes?
6. Why are the advocates of armed intervention and war with Mexico for Hughes?
7. Why are the trusts for Hughes?
8. Why are the champions of military conscription for Hughes?
9. Why are all the elements of political reaction and political Bourbonism for Hughes?
10. Why is every enemy of industrial, financial and corporation reform for Hughes?

The World urges Judge Hughes to answer these questions in his speech of acceptance, and warns him that no matter how great the ability or how lofty the personal character of a candidate for President may be, the country will judge him in a large measure by the kind of support that he rallies to his cause.

Recommends Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.
"I never hesitate to recommend Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy," writes Sol Williams, merchant, Jesse, Tenn. "I sell more of it than of any other preparations of like character. I have used it myself and found it gave me more relief than anything else I have ever tried for the same purpose." OBTAINABLE EVERYWHERE.

PHYSICIANS ARE QUITE RELIEVED.

Announced That Cure Has Been Discovered for Infantile Paralysis.

New York, July 31.—Physicians leading New York's fight against infantile paralysis felt a sigh of relief today with the announcement of the first cure brought about by the newly discovered Abrenclin treatment on which the specialists have relied to break the epidemic.

There was discharged from the hospital today a male infant brought to the hospital apparently near death three weeks ago. So complete has been the child's cure that specialists entertain hope that of making speedy progress in ending the epidemic.

The disease passed the 4,000 mark today in the number of cases. The deaths tonight had totaled 841. The day also was a record-breaking for the state. Outside of New York city fifty-three new cases and three deaths were reported. In New Jersey twenty-eight more cases were reported.

The Clerk Guaranteed It.
"A customer came into my store the other day and said to one of my clerks, 'have you anything that will cure diarrhoea?' and my clerk went and got him a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and said to him, 'if this does not cure you, I will not charge you a cent for it.' So he took it home and came back in a day or two and said he was cured," writes J. H. Berry & Co., Salt Creek, Va. OBTAINABLE EVERYWHERE.

Her First Day in Church.

The two trustees in the church took up the collection in the middle aisle, then began in front again and worked the side aisles.

"I should think," whispered the small girl to her father, "they would have four waiters, one for each aisle."

Despondency Due to Indigestion.
"About three months ago when I was suffering from indigestion which caused headache and dizzy spells and made me feel tired and despondent, I began taking Chamberlain's Tablets," writes Mrs. Geo. Hon. Macedon, N. Y. "This medicine proved to be the very thing I needed, as one day's treatment relieved me greatly. I used two bottles of Chamberlain's Tablets and they rid me of this trouble." OBTAINABLE EVERYWHERE.

There are between 3,000,000 and 4,000,000 woman voters in the United States.

HAVE YOU HAD THE EXPERIENCE?

Louisburg, N. C., August, 1st, 1913.
Mr. Automobile User,
Dear Sir—

Assuming you are interested in all the conveniences and time saving devices for Automobiles, that can be secured at moderate cost and especially those that are really practical, I take the liberty of calling your attention to the most wonderful, and the one that will be the most appreciated, convenience that has yet been devised.

No doubt you have had the experience of many others when on a business or pleasure trip you had to stop to repair a puncture, which always invariably happens both at the wrong time and place.

If so you will be one of the many admirers of the Carolina Puncture Proof Inner Tube. This is an inner tube made of the purest rubber possible to put in a tube, that actually will not deflate from a puncture. With your car equipped with them you can laugh at the nail or other object that you now dread. An actual test in Franklin County has been made by Mr. G. L. Crowell, who has driven 170 miles in one casing equipped with this tube without having to re-pump his tire, at the same time having driven his car over 2200 miles.

I know you will be interested in such a Tube and invite your careful investigation. See your local Puncture Proof Tube Agent, or write, or see me.

TO HOME SEEKERS OR LAND BUYERS.

I have for sale in Mecklenburg County, Va., about seventy-five miles West of Louisburg, N. C., about eight thousand acres of just as fine tobacco land as can be found on earth. These lands will also grow the best wheat, corn, etc. Well improved and finely watered, with plenty of timber and wood. Healthy climate, no chills, good neighborhood, churches and schools and good roads. Prices of these farms run from $10 to $15 per acre. Good terms wanted with 6 per cent interest. Fortunes can be made quickly by taking advantage of these low prices. You can't afford to pay $20 to $40 per acre for lands in Franklin county when you can get better for less than one-third this price. Come and look over these lands yourselves and you will wonder why you haven't done this before. You won't be by yourselves as many of your neighbors are now negotiating for these lands. Be the "early bird" and get first choice. For further information address me at Chase City, Va. W. T. HUGHES, 7-28-31. Formerly of Louisburg.
