Lesson II.-Fourth Quarter, For Oct. 8, 1916.

THE INTERNATIONAL SERIES.

Text of the Lesson, Acts xxiv, 10-21.

Memory Verses, 14, 15—Golden Text,
Acts xxiv, 16—Commentary Prepared by Rev. D. M. Stearns.

This chapter gives us Paul's testi-mony before the high priest and the elders from Jerusalem, at Caesarea, in the presence of the governor Felix, and also some account of one of Paul's talks with Felix and his wife Dru-silla. The persecutors from Jerusalem brought with them an orator who, with flattery for Felix, did a large amount of lying against Paul, which the Jews indorsed, saying that these things were so (verses 1-9). Faul denied their accusations and defed them to prove what they seld out the prove what they seld out the seld of the seld of the seld out they are the seld out they are seld out the to prove what they said and then stated the case truthfully (verses 10-33). His confession that he believed all things which are written in the lav and in the prophets (verse 14) remin'is us that our Lord said that the two with whom He walked to Emmy aus with whom He walked to kind aus were foolish in not doing so, and also that He expounded from Mose, and the prophets and the psalms the things concerning Himself, saying Vast all must be fulfilled (Luke xxre, /25-27, 44).

It is counted heresy even now by many supposedly orthodox preachers to look forma literal Israel to occupy to look for a literal Israel to occupy the land given to Abraham Isaac and Jacob, and a literal kingdom of God on earth with Israel as a center, who shall, as a nation made righteous by receiving Jesus Christ as their Mes-siah when Hershall come in His/glory, then bring blessing to all nations. I slah when He snah come in His giory, then bring blessing to all nations. I have been told to my face by a teacher of large Bible classes that the Jews were no more to God than the Indians of our country, but I am still believing God and standing with our Lord and with Part and expect softo continue by with Paul and expect so/to continue by His grace. As to the resurrection of the dead, both of the light and unjust, when understood in the light of will Scripture, that also, is must simple and

All the dead shall wrise; that is clear All the dead shallwrise; that is clear not only from lessor, very e 15, but also from our Lord's «wn words in John v, 28, 29, with Dan, Jil, 2. That the hour of John v, 28, may, and will, cover a thousand, years is easy from the fact that the hour of John v, 25, has already covered hearly 1,900 years. In Luke my, 14, the resurrection of the just is, spring of as a time of recovered. just is sprken of as a time of reward for the righteout, and I Cor. xv., 23, "Z'hey that are Christ's at His n/s." In Rev. xx, 5, 6, it is written that those who do not take part in the first resurr ection will not rise till the end of the thousand years. There is no foundation in the Scriptures, for the thought that our resurrection takes tion of all, good and bad /at/what is

If this sounds strange to any who read, please do not turn away from it, as I once did, but look into it humbly and prayerfully, with a real desire to know the mind of the Lord, and He will surely teach you. Let us culti-vate a conscience word of offense to-ward God first and then toward men (verse 16). Felix, having heard both sides and seeing through some things, decided that the matter be deferred until Lysias, the whief captain, could come and advise him more fully. Meantime he treated Paul well as a prisoner, giving hi m liberty and allow ing his acquaints nees to see him and minister to him (versea, 22, 23). As we think of Philip and his household and all who beard the word in the home of Correlius, it is possible that Paul was made as comfortable as a prisoner could be, and, no doubt, he used every opportunity to preach to setiv.p His kingdom.

Wes may infer from verse 27 flat the case was deferred for at least two years; so that Paul must have had much rest and many opportunities. We cannot think as well of Felix as we would like to, for he was evidently an up to date grafter and a man ple aser, often sending for Paul to hear hi n talk, trembling a little sometimes ur ider his schrching words, but always b oping that Paul would offer him mon-tay to set him free, and keeping Paul a prisoner to please the Jews (verses 24-27). What we call graft, or, as in the Bible, taking bribes, is a very old story, and was forbidden by the law of moses. Samuel was free from it, of Moses. Samuel-was free from it, but not so his sons (Deut. xvi. 19; I Sam. viii, 3; fii, 3).

We must hot confuse this with the saying of our Lord, as some do, that the Spirit will convince the world of sin, and of righteousness, and of judgment (John xvi. 7, 8). Our first need as singers is a righteousness which will enable us to appear unashamed before God, and this we cannot obtain by any good works of our own. Yet there are many going about seeking to establish their own righteousness. not knowing that in God's sight all is as filthy rags, and apart from Jesus-Christ there is none righteous-no. not one (Isa. 1xiv. 8; Rom. iil, 10, 19-24; one (Isa. lxiv, 8: Rom. iii. 10. 19-24; x. 8, 4; II Cor. v. 21). Temperance is the denial or control of self in every form that God may be glorified in our daily life, not in order to be saved, but because of the righteousness freely given to us in Christ. All shall in due time and in due order come to indi-ment either for sins or service.
