PATRIOTISM AND CLOTHES

The Red, White and Blue in Evidence in Many Novel
Accessories.

Blue Foulard Combined With White
Organdy.

New York, May 15, 1917.

The patriotic spirit of flag-decked New York begins to make itself felt in many of the small accessories that make a woman's costume, and often in the costume itself. With flags to the right and flags to the left, it is not to be wondered at that the spirit of the times is being reflected in our clothes.

The red, white and blue colors are in evidence everywhere. New vests and collars of white silk or satin are edged with narrow red, white and blue ribbon, or rows of red and blue ribbon are stitched around the edges of white collars. The vests are the very latest addition to coats, and are so popular that even blouses are being made in vest effect now.

A Bolero Dress in Dotted Foulard is Exceedingly Smart.

Hosiery and gloves embroidered with stars and stripes are among the latest novelties seen, showing the extent to which patriotism may be taken. There are also small silk handkerchiefs edged with little flags, and parasols edged with ribbon bearing the stars and stripes. Even a parasol of red, white and blue bunting has been devised, with the colors used alternately in each section.

Costumes consisting of red or blue wool jersey middie blouses are worn with skirts of white wash satin or sports silk. The blouses are decorated with embroidered emblems on the sleeves, on the ends of collars or in front. With the blue blouses are worn red ties, and with the red blouses, blue ties.

Foulard Combined with Organdy or Georgette.

Every smartly-dressed woman realizes that if she is to be up to date she must have a dress of foulard in her wardrobe this summer. Blue foulard with large white polka-dots is the kind one sees most of, but sometimes the order is reversed and blue dots standing out on a white background appear. They are just as smart and even a little newer than the white dots on the blue.

Foulard is often combined with Georgette or organdy. In the sketch it is combined with white Georgette which is used for the soft, gathered vest and collar, of a very modish bolero dress of navy-blue dotted foulard. The pretty bolero style has come back to us, and this is one of the many attractive models in which it is seen. Some of the new summer suits have short bolero coats trimmed around the edge with some form of embroidery or stitching. A very smart model was made of blue twill and foulard.

Foulard is put to other uses besides the fashioning of dresses. It makes very effective trimming on suits; for instance, on collar, cuffs and pockets. White-dotted blue foulard combines well with navy or sand-colored serge or twill.

Speaking of the combinations of materials, one of the very newest effects is that of using organdy and net together. And speaking of organdy, it is to be very popular this summer for entire dresses and also for trimming. A white net summer frock worn over a pink organdy slip and trimmed with bands of pale pink organdy on the skirt was recently seen. A very cool and refreshing frock for summer it looked.

Silk Braid a Fashionable Trimming. The use of flat woven silk braid as a trimming is becoming more and more favored. Braid about half an inch in width is applied on coats and skirts in straight rows one above the other, and at even distances apart. Sometimes the braid covers an entire coat, sleeves and all.

Black braid on navy blue, and dark blue on tan are the combinations most frequently seen. To accompany a dark-blue coat, white flannel skirts trimmed with rows of dark-blue braid are sometimes used.

Capes Make Their Appearance.

Coats with capes, and dresses with capes, have been making their appearance lately. The capes are not the short variety that were used some seasons ago. They are very long, as long as the coat to which it is attached in most cases, and many of them are attached only at the back of a coat or dress. While being very smart, these capes have a practical value in that they give extra warmth. In a very smart dress which combined dark-blue satin and serge, a cape of serge was attached at the shoulders. The lining of apricot-colored silk formed an effective background for the dark dress.

Much of this satin and serge combination is being used again this spring, and frocks of this kind are especially practical for shopping and street wear. With one of the fur capes no other wrap is necessary at this time of the year.

The linen frock for summer means as much as the satin-and-serge frock does for spring. A tailored coat dress of white linen buttoned down the front and brightened by a colored linen collar, a belt and large pockets of the same, is seen in the sketch. Stitching is the tailored trimming used to accentuate the distinctive lines of this model.

A CHILD HATES OIL,
CALOMEL, PILLS FOR
LIVER AND BOWELS

Give "California Syrup of Figs" If Cross, Sick, Feverish, Constipated.

Look back at your childhood days. Remember the "dose" mother insisted on—Castor oil, calomel, cathartics. How you hated them, how you fought against taking them.

With our children it's different. Mothers who cling to the old form of physic simply don't realize what they do. The children's revolt is well-founded. Their tender little "insides" are injured by them.

If your child's stomach, liver and bowels need cleansing, give only delicious "California Syrup of Figs." Its action is positive, but gentle. Millions of mothers keep this harmless "fruit laxative" handy; they know children love to take it; that it never fails to clean the liver and bowels and sweeten the stomach, and that a teaspoonful given today saves a sick child tomorrow.

Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on each bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here. See that it is made by "California Fig Syrup Company." Refuse any other kind with contempt.

"Chamberlain's Tablets Have Done Wonders for Me."

"I have been a sufferer from stomach trouble for a number of years, and although I have used a great number of remedies recommended for this complaint, Chamberlain's Tablets is the first medicine that has given me positive and lasting relief," writes Mrs. Anna Kadu, Spencerport, N. Y. "Chamberlain's Tablets have done wonders for me and I value them very highly." OBTAINABLE EVERYWHERE.
