EVENING GOWNS ACCEPT THE REIGN OF SIMPLICITY

Milady's Slipper Follows Sp? New York, Oct. 11, 1917—The question of evening dress "to be or not to be" of the decollete, seems to have been decided. The optimistic spirit of America has prevailed, and while there is not the same gorgeous display as in the past, evening clothes are worn, are rarely beautiful ones at that. The President of the United States paid a visit to New York not long ago, and together with Mrs. Wilson passed an evening at one of the most enjoyable plays of the season. Of course the house was wildly enthusiastic; it was some time before the play could begin, and even then the audience paid more attention to the official box-party than to the play.

A Victory on Empire Lines
Mrs. Wilson was very simply dressed, but she seemed immensely interested in the bustle dresses on the stage and the costumes scattered everywhere over the house.

Picturesque, indeed, are the compromises affected by Fashion. The dresses are in the same wonderful tints and colors that have always been favorites, perhaps though a trifle subdued. Some high in the back, square or round in front, with long sleeves of tulle or gery short ones of the same material as the bodice or the overskirt. The waist that is cut straight is very popular this year, for it gives the effect of a higher neck.

Simplicity and Lack of Trimming
There is very little trimming on the new models. They seem to rely to a great extent on their line and color, and charming indeed is the result. One of the most attractive of the new modes in evening gowns is illustrated here. It is of rose-colored satin, bodice and skirt, with a filmy overskirt or tunic of soft mist-gray chiffon, stitched on the lower edge with rose-colored silk in the long, loose stich which make such a fascinating trimming. The collar and the short sleeves of the chiffon are stitched in the same manner.

Good Taste in Slippers
Just a word here about the slippers for evening, and the difference between those in good taste and those that are just a trifle too ornate and overtrimmed. Life has invented a new word, the gerb "to hoove," meaning to conserve, and it is now being widely used. One must "hoove" one's good, of course, and equally, of course one must "hoove" one's trimmings on every article of one's dress. Slippers that are good form are very plain, indeed. The long vamp is still with us; heels do not seem to be quite so high as formerly, for they too, have been "hooved." Satin, the same color as the dress, is the first choice. A rhinestone buckle placed high on the slipper is very fashionable. Then one of the latest ideas in slipper decoration is a tiny bow of satin, a single bow of ribbon a quarter of an inch wide, perhaps. Many of the fall brides have chosen this for their wedding slippers. It gives the foot the long, narrow effect that is so distinctive.

Fashions that Flatter
Every woman, no matter what her age, size or coloring, has a secret thrill and new hope each time she buys or plans a frock. Perhaps, now, she will attain that degree of perfection which she desires, and with the aid of the Fairy New Dress, show to the world that she is ever young and fair! With care and deep consideration she can do this, for there are fashions that flatter, fashions that make the best of one, fashions that create around one the atmosphere of charm and romance. The surplice style is one of these, and

The Charm of Lace and Taffeta
The evening dress illustrated here shows a rare combination of beauty and style. The tie-on waist and the shaped tunic are of champagne colored taffeta, and the lace of the rest of the dress is cream-colored. One unusual feature is the sleeve puff of lace bound in the taffeta.

Airy Fairy Accessories
All the glow and glitter of the time o' day when fireflies and other lights are bright are contained in the accessories for the evening costume. There are scarfs dripping with scintillating beads, combs and fans on fire with flashing lights, rhinestone buckles on slippers, and precious jewels on white hands and arms. There is not the overloading of fingers with rings nor the many chains and neck ornaments as formerly. This year the woman of good taste prefers one perfect thing, be it ring, brooch or bracelet, to the dozens of small odds and ends of yester year. All of which goes to make up the overwhelming beauty of any gathering where fashion and patriotism work hand in hand.

ACIDS IN STOMACH SOUR THE FOOD AND CAUSE INDIGESTION

"Pape's Diapepsin" fixes sour, gassy, upset stomachs in five minutes. You don't know what upset your stomach—which portion of the food did the damage—do you? Well, don't bother. If your stomach is in a revolt; if sick, gassy and upset, and what you just ate has fermented and turned to sour; head dizzy and aches; belches gases and acids and eructate undigested food; breath foul, tongue coated—just take a little Pape's Diapepsin to neutralize acidity and in five minutes you wonder what became of the indigestion and distress.

Millions of men and women today know that it is needless to have dyspepsia. A little Diapepsin occasionally keeps the stomach sweetened, and they eat their favorite foods without fear.

If your stomach doesn't take care of your liberal limit without rebellion; if your food is a damage instead of a help, remember the quickest, surest, most harmless antacid is Pape's Diapepsin, which costs only fifty cents for a large case at drug stores. It's truly wonderful—it stops food souring and sets things straight, so gently and easily that it is really astonishing. Your stomach, will digest your meals if you keep acids neutralized.

"Every time I get a new automobile I deposit five thousand dollars in the bank."

"Why do you do that?"
"So I can have a fund I can draw on to pay for repairs."

WORN NERVES
Nervous troubles, with backache, dizzy spells, queer pains and irregular kidneys, give reason to suspect kidney weakness and to try the remedy that has helped your neighbors.

Mrs. W. F. Cross, Mason St., Franklinton, N. C. says: "I had trouble from my kidneys nearly all my life. My back pained me severely and felt as though it were broken. Awful twinges darted through my kidneys and I couldn't move until the pains let up. I had dizzy and nervous spells. I passed gravel stones the size of large peas and I nearly went insane. I finally began using Doan's Kidney Pills and the first box helped me. A couple of boxes strengthened my back and kidneys and removed all the trouble. I don't have trouble from stones in my bladder any more."

Price 60c. at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Cross had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy the Most Reliable

After many years' experience in the use of it and other cough medicines, there are many who prefer Chamberlain's to any other. Mrs. A. C. Kirslein, Greenville, Ills., writes: "Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has been used in my mother's home and mine for years, and we always found it a quick cure for colds and bronchial troubles. We find it to be the most reliable cough medicine we have used."

Carefully Treat Children's Colds

Neglect of children's colds often lays the foundation of serious lung trouble. On the other hand, it is harmful to continually dose delicate little stomachs with internal medicines or to keep the children always indoors.

Plenty of fresh air in the bedroom and a good application of Vick's "Vap-O-Rub" Salve over the throat and chest at the first sign of trouble, will keep the little chaps free from colds without injuring their digestions. 25c, 50c, or $1.00.
