Future Opportunity

Among the patrons of this Institution many are accumulating funds for future use—holding money until it is needed.

For their convenience, we issue Time Certificates of Deposit maturing in from four to six months, and bearing interest at 4 per cent.

There is in these Time Deposits a combination of security and profit, which makes them particularly desirable for temporarily idle surplus funds.

KAISER'S LAST WILL

Here is a copy of the "last will and testament" of the kaiser as published by a naval and army supply concern of New York City and distributed among expeditionary forces which recently sailed for France:

"This is the last will and testament of me, Wilhelm, the Superswanker ruler of the sausage caters. Recognizing that I am up against it and expecting to meet with a violent leath any minute at the hands of brace Sammies, I hereby make my last will and testament: I hereby appoint the Emperor of Austria to be my sole executor (by the kind permission of the Allies).

"1. I give and bequeath to France the territories of Alsace and Lorraine. (as this is only a case of returning sto. len property, I don't deserve any credit for it and I am not likely to get any, either.)

"2. To Serbia I give Austria.

"3. To Russia I give Turkey for the Czars' breakfast.

"4. To Belgium I should like to give all the thick ears, black eyes and broken noses that she so kindly presented me with when I politely trespassed on her territory.

"5. To your Uncle Sam I give all my dreadnaughts; submarines, torpedo-boat destroyers and fleet. He's bound to go them in the end, so this is only inticipating events.

"6. To John Bull Fgive what's left of my army, as his General Haig seems so handy at turning my men into sausage meat.

"7. To the College of Science and the meuseu I leave my famous mustache, souvenir of the greatest swanker in this or any other age.

"S. To Mrs Pankhurst and other wad women I leave my mailed fist; they'll need it when they resume their militant tactics.

1 leave the Pole. I've been up it so long that I regard it as my own property. (Signed) H. I. M. WILHELM.
