Ingleside Items.

Mr. Gilbert T. Stephenson of Winston-Salem, delivered an eloquent address to the people of Ingleside March 19, on the war and war saving campaign, which was very beneficial to the many who were present. The speaker was introduced by Mr. Will Yarborough, of Louisburg. We were glad to have Mr. E. L. Best and other visitors of Louisburg with us also.

After Mr. Stephenson's address, Mr.
Yarborough organized a war saving society among the ladies of the neighborhood, electing Mrs. R. D. Parnell as president, and Mrs. A. A. Dement as secretary. We have also organized a society of eighteen members in our school, electing Miss Garnette Myers as president, Miss Elizabeth Manning as secretary, and Misses Ora Holden, Lillie Edwards, and Irene Dickerson as Program Committee. We will have our first meeting Monday, March 25, and we hope to add more members to our list on this meeting.

Mr. J. B. Hunt has returned from a visit to relatives and friends of Ringwood, N. C.

We regret very much that one of our teachers Miss Nan Hines has been absent from school for the last few days on account of sickness. We hope that she will soon recover.

Miss Francis Smithwick, of Louisburg, was a guest of Miss Elizabeth Manning Tuesday night.

Misses Alma Edwards, Irene and Gertie Dickerson, and Messrs. Clifton Dickerson and Julius Collins attended church at Liberty Sunday A. M.

We have secured Professor F. S.
Love, of Louisburg, to make an address at our commencement on April 12. Everybody is invited to help us enjoy this special privilege.

For the past ten days our Ninth Grade English class has been telling stories in the other rooms, and we have some rivalry as to which can tell the most interesting story. On each occasion the entertainer has been requested to come back and tell another story.

We are also studying "Silas Marner" and most of the members of the class are very much interested in the character displayed by George Elliot.
However, the teacher has threatened to put some of us in the "coal-hole" unless we get a move-on.

What has become of those teams who promised to give us a game of basket ball at Ingleside? We are not dangerous, just because we have plenty of "pep". Don't be a slacker.
Give us a game.
