Public Comment Reaches Mother And Leads Her to Take Step With Good Results.

More undeniable proof of Peplac's great work is offered by Mrs. Mary E.
Southernland, Ninth and Castle Streets, Wilmington, N. C. Her story explains why this marvelous remedy is attracting such favorable comment from the people of this section, and is as follows:
"I suffered from stomach trouble, indigestion and nervousness. The little food that I managed to eat did more harm than good, and a good night's sleep was out of the question. I heard how much good Peplac was doing for people I knew and started taking it.
It relieved me at once, and I lost no time in starting my daughter, Ruth, on it, for she had been suffering terribly with pains in her side, the result of kidney trouble. She was also nervous and, like myself, slept poorly and had no appetite to speak of.
"What Peplac did for me it also did for my daughter. The two of us are now enjoying a health race. It is simply wonderful how Peplac has helped us and we join in thanks and only hope that it will help others the same way.

If Secretary Baker had had any idea he would ever want to run for office, he should not have permitted the report to get past the censor that he hid in a wine cellar in France during an aerial bombardment. At least he should have had creditable witnesses to smell his breath when he emerged.

Village Blacksmith.
Today while out upon a stroll
The shifting sands of time to meet A grave yard hare—dog gone her soul Slipped from right between my feet.

A thousand others would have guessed
That on this hill or little rise
Was this cute and cozy nest Containing such a lucky prize.

My first thought was to give her chase
But she chose a rugged route
I could not run this zig zag race
With stiff joints rheumatiz and gout.

Of course I could not swell the track
Although I craved the lucky hoof
So I had to hyke it back To the hay up in the roof.

To untrap this treasure rare
I've left ajar my triggered gate
But never yet a grave yard hare Has paid a call or tried the bait.

I've passed o'er many a rise and dip
Have coasted some of life's high way But let all grave yard rabbits slip
And now my hope has not a ray.

Nature Cures. The Doctor Takes the Fee.
There is an old saying that "Nature cures, the doctor takes the fee," but as everyone knows you can help Nature very much and thereby enable it to effect a cure in much less time than is usually required. This is particularly true of colds. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy relieves the lungs, liquifies the tough mucus and aids in its expectoration, allays the cough and aids Nature in restoring the system to a healthy condition.

let it be.

Send for Swift & Company's 1918 Year Book

It shows that Swift & Company sells the meat from a steer for less money than the live steer cost!

Proceeds from the sale of the hide, fat, and other by-products covered all expense of dressing, refrigeration, freight, selling expense and the profit of $1.29 per steer as shown by Swift & Company's 1917 figures as follows:

Average price paid for live cattle per steer	$84.45
Average price received for meat	68.97
Average price received for by-products	24.09
Total received	93.06
This leaves for expenses and profit	8.61
Of which the profit per steer was	1.29

There are many other interesting and instructive facts and figures in the Year Book.

We want to send our 1918 Year Book, to anyone, anywhere — free for the asking. Address Swift & Company, Union Stock Yards, Chicago.
