GERMANS BEING TAUGHT AMERICAN TRICKS

General Immediate Objective of Enemy Now Is Compeigne, Which Is Not Yet Reached.

SITUATION ON PLATEAU OF MONTDIDIER IS STILL UNCHANGED

Germans, While Making Slight Gain, Showed Slowest Progress of Any Day in Effort To Get To Paris; Everywhere They Are Paying Exorbitant Price For Every Foot of Ground; Numerous Divisions Cut To Pieces, Americans Take Ballieau Wood and Capture Prisoners; Day's War Story.

GERMANS LOSING MAN POWER.

Paris, June 11.—The battle along the front continued with fury. Attacks and counter-attacks follow each other without interruption. The losses of the Germans are formidable. The evening papers in reviewing the results which have been obtained during the past two days by the Germans, agree that they are not to be ignored, but doubt that they were worth the losses which the Germans suffered.

"Along the whole front," says the Journal des Debats, "the situation is not modified sensibly. The general immediate objective of the enemy is Compiegne, but this city has not been reached. The advance along the right bank of the Oise is not sufficient to disturb our positions on the opposite bank of the river between the Oise and the Aisne. On the other end of the line the situation upon the plateau of Montdidier is not changed.

AMERICANS TAKE BALLEAU WOOD.

Paris, June 11.—American troops brilliantly carried Balleau wood this morning, taking 300 prisoners.

This announcement is made by the War Office in its official report tonight.

The third day of the German offensive on the front between Montdidier and Noyan saw the Germans still making progress from the center of the line eastward of the Oise river but being held back in their attempts to bring their positions southeast of Montdidier in alignment. Everywhere they were continuing to pay an exorbitant price for the gains they made.

Foch's Troops Waiting For 'Em.

Having reached the Oise in the region of Ribecourt, the enemy if he purposes to try to fight his way along the west bank of the stream, soon must emerge in force upon the low lands bordering the waterway, where the troops of General Foch are said to be in strong array—both in men and guns—waiting to dispute the road to Paris.

Slow Progress of Enemy.

Although nearly 300,000 men are being employed by the Germans in their efforts to open a way to the French capital, their progress is slow, when compared to that on other days. Numerous divisions of the attacking troops have been cut to pieces by the French gunners and forced to withdraw from the battle in order to fill the gaps with fresh men. Not an inch of ground has been given up without the exacting by the French of a terrible toll in men killed or wounded. And nowhere has the defending line been pierced.

Driven Back From River.

The apex of the salient driven by the Germans is still in the center south of the village of Marqueglise. To the west of this point the Germans at one time almost reached the Arconde river, but were driven back for considerable distance by the French in heavy counter-attacks. The French alsa are counter-attacking southwest of Noyon according to the German official communication, which says, however, that renewed efforts of the French to regain lost territory were repulsed with heavy losses.

The German war office claims the capture of 10,000 additional prisoners which, with the number of captives reported Monday, would bring the total to 18,000 in the present fighting.

Since the new offensive began along the Soissons-Rheims sector May 27 it is asserted by the German official communication that the army group of the German crown prince has taken about 75,000 Allied troops captive.

Quiet at Soissons And Rheims.

Comparative quiet still prevails on the front between Soissons and Rheims although the Germans announce that northwest of Chateau Thierry where the American marines, fighting side by side with the French, have several times decisively defeated the enemy, the Germans have repulsed with heavy losses attacks delivered against their front.

British Strike Hard Blow.

In one of the most ambitious operations carried out in many days Field Marshal Haig's troops in the Amiens sector have struck the Germans a hard blow. It was the Australians who carried out the maneuver, and they succeeded in advancing their line half a mile over a mile and a half front, and took nearly 300 prisoners, including five officers. In addition twenty-one machine guns and a trench mortar were captured.

On the Italian front there has been no infantry fighting of importance, but numerous small affairs between patrol parties continue of daily occurrence. Likewise the artilleries of both sides are keeping up mutual bombardments.

Another "Peace Offensive" Mooted.

Another "peace offensive" by Germany and Austria-Hungary apparently is in the air. It is asserted that in Berlin the government and the high army command are discussing a declaration of war aims, while from Vienna comes the news that the Austro-Hungarian foreign minister in an interview has reiterated that he still adheres to the policy of peace by understanding and that the dual monarchy seek no annexation.

Takes Position With Farmers & Merchants Bank.

Miss Marguerite Harris, of near Youngsville, who has been with the Citizens Bank at Franklinton for some time, has accepted a position with the Farmers & Merchants Bank, of Louisburg, and will enter upon her duties on Monday. Miss Harris is one of Franklin county's finest and most popular young ladies and her many friends in Louisburg will be glad to know that she will come to Louisburg to live.

No Actual Change in Business.

Although Candler-Crowell Co., are announcing the dissolution of their incorporated business we are informed that there will be no actual change in their business. The action is taken by Mr. H. L. Candler, who is the proprietor of the business in order to cut out the red tape connected with an incorporated business. He informs us he will conduct the business the same as heretofore and will continue to do his utmost to accommodate the public.

List of Letters.

The following is a list of letters remaining in the Post Office at Louisburg, N. C., not called for June 14th, 1918:

Kenneth Brewer, Mr. S. H. Cannady, Sr., Mr. S. A. DePriest, Mr. L. S. Gupton, Mr. Butter Macon, Misses Edna May and Pauline Bullock, Russel, Weatherspoon & Gibson, Mr. J. R. Weaver, Mr. Robert Wright.

Persons calling for any of the above letters will please state that they saw them advertised.

R. H. DAVIS, P. M.

Negro Troops, Presumably Americans, Participate in a Successful Counter-Attack.

With the French Army in France, June 11.—The strongest effort made by the Germans in the course of last night and this morning in their new offensive was in the direction of the railroad connecting Estress-St. Denis and Montdidier. The Germans met with such resistance that they renounced for the moment their attempts in this region.

Negro troops, supported by entente allied tanks, which did great execution, delivered a brilliant counter-attack in this vicinity and recaptured the forest running southwest of Marqueglise, between Perte farm and Loges farm.

Late last night the allied infantry re-entered the village of Mary which had formed a protective point for the German advance through the valley.

Seeing their progress hindered on this side the Germans turned toward the other bank and nearly reached Ribecourt to the north of which place the hottest encounters occurred in the woods of Dreslincourt.

The enemy will be forced to debouch on the plain near the Oise river where he will find himself without the shelter of woods and will be subjected to a concentrated fire of allied artillery and machine guns.

The Germans have found it necessary to bring forward more divisions to fill the gaps in their ranks caused by the terrific allied gunfire.

The enemy's possession of the height of Ecouvillon below Thiescourt enabled him to filter troops through the small valleys, making the position of the Allies occupying the small hillocks perilous and causing them to retire.

The whole countryside hereabouts is dotted with these small hills, which are called mountains, forming a kind of bastion, which, when turned from one side or the other, become absolute traps for the occupants. Most of the valleys between run toward the banks of the river Oise.

Mr. P. B. Houck, who has been on a visit to his people here, returned to Philadelphia Saturday. He was accompanied by his brother, George, who will accept a position there.

Mr. Boyd Meadows Dead.

News was received here Wednesday by members of the family of the death of Mr. Boyd Meadows at Hendersonville on Tuesday, after a long illness. He was about 22 years old and leaves a mother besides several brothers and sisters. He was a son of the late Dr. J. S. Meadows, and a brother to our townsmen, Messrs. S. S. Meadows and B. H. Meadows. The remains were brought to Louisburg yesterday afternoon and interred in the family plot in Oaklawn cemetery, the funeral being held from the Baptist church. Both services were largely attended.

Bobbitt-Pittman.

At the home of the bride's parents on Wednesday evening Miss Priscilla Pittman and Mr. J. K. Bobbitt were happily united in wedlock by Rev. W. B. Morton, in the presence of a number of friends.

The bride is one of Louisburg's most charming and accomplished young ladies, and the groom is among Wake Forest's most popular young men.

Locates at Wood.

It will be interesting to our readers to know that Dr. H. M. Beam, of Woodsdale, a graduate of Columbia University, has located at Wood for the practice of his profession. He comes to this county highly recommended. He is a brother to our townsman, Mr. G. M. Beam.

Supt. Best to Raleigh.

Supt. E. L. Best left Tuesday for Raleigh where he will teach at the State College during the Summer School for teachers. Where this is quite an honor to Supt. Best and Franklin county, the State College is to be congratulated upon securing his services. Supt. Best informs us he will be in his office in Louisburg on Friday afternoon's and Saturdays of each week until after the close of the Summer School.

PERSON IS OUT OF SECOND PRIMARY

WANTS PRIMARY LAW TO BE AMENDED.

Announces He Will Not Demand Second Contest for Judgeship—Believes That Plurality Instead of Majority Should Decide Elections.

No second primary will be necessary to determine the Democratic nomination for judgeship in the seventh judicial district. Senator W. M. Person, of Louisburg, second highest candidate yesterday declared that he would not demand a second contest, and would forego the privilege afforded him under the law in favor of Judge T. H. Calvert, who was the leading candidate.

Incidentally, Senator Person puts out the reminder that when the primary campaign opened he offered to abide by the decision of the plurality. None of the contestants would agree to this and now Senator Person wants an amendment to the State primary law permitting plurality instead of majority to rule. This would eliminate second primaries except in cases of tie votes, which are rare.

Senator Person's statement to the voters of the district follows:

"To the Voters of the Seventh Judicial District:

"About two months ago, at the beginning of my candidacy for the judgship, I offered to abide by the result of the first primary and to consent that the man receiving the highest vote be declared the nominee of the party. While none of the other candidates saw fit to accept my proposition, yet I will stand by it.

"I decline to call for a second primary and I do not think the voters of the district ought to be harrassed by another primary. I believe that the primary law ought to be amended to the extent that the plurality instead of the majority should control.

"In order to prevent any further factionizing of the party in the district and to save the cost of holding said primary and the further trouble of calling upon the six thousand or more farmers in the district to leave their farms in these strenuous crop times to decide which of two lawyers should be judge, it gives me pleasure to declare and pronounce the Hon. T. H. Calvert the next judge of the seventh judicial district.

"We have a greater responsibility upon us than to cater to our personal ambitions which we should lay aside and help win the greatest war of all times. I am satisfied my greatest usefulness could be exercised in the furnishing of information to the people in the great crisis and to furnish all possible sinews of war to our government.

"While grateful to those who voted for other candidates, and thanks to those friends who supported me, I remain,

"Your obedient servant,

"(Signed) W. M. PERSON.
