Law Authorizing Vote on Six Months School Amendment.

The following act to amend the constitution was passed by the General Assembly of 1917, and will be voted on in the November election:

"Section 1. That section three, article nine of the Constitution of North Carolina be and the same is hereby amended by striking out therefrom the words 'four months' and inserting in lieu thereof the words 'six months'."

"Sec. 2. That this amendment shall be submitted at the next general election, to the qualified voters of the State in the same manner and under the same rules and regulations as provided in the law regulating general elections in this state."

"Sec. 3. That at said election, into a ballot box labeled 'Ballot Box for Constitutional Amendment' or 'Ballot Box for Constitutional Amendments,' those persons desiring to vote such an amendment shall cast a separate printed ballot with the words 'For Six Months School Term thereon,' and those with contrary opinion may cast a separate printed ballot with the words 'Against Six Months School Term thereon'."

"Sec. 4. That the said election shall be held, and the vote returned, compared, counted and canvassed and the results announced under the same rules and regulations as are in force at the general election in the year one thousand nine hundred and eighteen for returning, comparing, counting, and canvassing the votes for Governor; and if the majority of the votes cast be in favor of the amendment, it shall be the duty of the Governor of the State to certify said amendment under the seal of the State to the Secretary of State, who shall enroll the said amendment so certified among the permanent records of his office."
