GIRLS! THICKEN AND BEAUTIFY YOUR HAIR AND STOP DANDRUFF

Try this! Your hair gets wavy, glossy and abundant at once.

To be possessed of a head of heavy, beautiful hair; soft, lustrous, fleecy, wavy and free from dandruff is merely a matter of using a little Danderine.

It is easy and inexpensive to have nice, soft hair and lots of it. Just get a small bottle of Knowlton's Danderine now for a few cents—all drug stores recommend it—apply a little as directed and within ten minutes there will be an appearance of abundance, freshness, fluffiness and an incomparable gloss and lustre, and try as you will you cannot find a trace of dandruff or falling hair; but your real surprise will be after about two weeks use, when you will see new hair—fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair—sprouting out all over your scalp—Danderine is, we believe, the only sure hair grower, destroyer of dandruff and cure for itchy scalp and it never fails to stop falling hair at once.

If you want to prove how pretty and soft your hair really is, moisten a cloth with a little Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair—taking one small strand at a time. Your hair will be soft, glossy and beautiful in just a few moments—a delightful surprise awaits everyone who tries this.

LEMONS WHITEN AND BEAUTIFY THE SKIN

Make this beauty lotion cheaply for your face and hands.

At the cost of a small jar of ordinary cold cream one can prepare a full quart pint of the most wonderful lemon skin softener and complexion beautifier, by squeezing the juice of two fresh lemons into a bottle containing three ounces of orchard white. Care should be taken to strain the juice through a fine cloth so no lemon pulp gets in, then this lotion will keep fresh for months. Every woman knows that lemon juice is used to bleach and remove such blemishes as freckles, sallowness and tan and is the ideal skin softener, whitener and beautifier.

Just try it! Get three ounces of orchard white at any drug store and two lemons from the grocer and make up a quart pint of this sweetly fragrant lemon lotion and massage it daily into the face, neck, arms and hands. It is marvelous to smoothen rough, red hands.

In Memoriam.

On Thursday morning February the twenty-seventh, long ere the dawn had stained the eastern sky with its crimson glory the angel of death entered the home of Mr. G. Cade Parrish and bore away his spirit.

The short period of illness had not prepared the loving hearts of those who watched longingly by his bed side for the sudden departure. It was a shock to the entire community.

All those who came in contact with Mr. Parrish became aware of the worth and purity of his character. Even in this age of turmoil and haste we always found him calm, keeping the faith and trusting in the guidance of the Father, for indeed he was a devout follower of the Cross.

When he was only fifteen years of age he took his stand for Christ, joining the church at Mt. Zion. In this church he became, not a passive, but an active member, being at one time superintendent of the Sunday School, and at all times doing his best for the Master.

In 1912 he was married to Miss Delphia Johnson of this county.

Of late he moved his membership to Sandy Creek continuing his work in and for the church there, until he moved to Louisburg.

He was in every way a faithful husband and a loving father. The way that he gained access into the hearts of his fellowmen shows that he lived not for himself, but for others.

The thought, that the world was made better by his stay here should soothe the aching hearts as would the Balm of Gilead for although his life was quiet and unobtrusive, it was fruitful, giving many signs of his love for the Master.

At his home in Louisburg a select chapter was read from the bible by Rev. Mr. Smith and a prayer was offered by Mr. Collins, after which his body was taken to Sandy Creek and tenderly laid away in the presence of a great number of friends and relatives.

The burial services were conducted by Rev. T. D. Collins of Louisburg, and Rev. J. H. Harper. In the services the words spoken showed clearly the estimation of the noble and manly character of the deceased.

Mr. Parrish was the oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Parrish. He leaves a wife and three small children besides his immediate family, and a host of friends.

"Weep not, for today is great joy in Heaven for a soul goes back to God."
