Rossville, Ga.-Mrs. Kate Lee Able, of this place, writes: "My husband is an engineer, and once white lifting, he injured himself with a plese of heavy machinery, across the abdomen. He was so sore he could not bear to press on himself at all, on chest or abdomen. He weighed 165 lbs., and fell off until he weighed 110 lbs., in two weeks.

He became constipated and it looked like he would die. We had three different doctors, yet with all their medicine, his bowels failed to act. He would turn up a ten-cent bottle of castor oil, and drink it two or three days in succession. He did this yet without result. We became desperate, he suffered so. He was swol-ien terribly. He told me his suffering could only be described as torture.

I sent and bought Thedford's Black-Draught. I made him take a big dose and when it began to act he fainted, he was in such misery, but he got relief and n to mend

Bill Introduced In Senate and House In Their Behalf-The Church Organization Will Also Give Practical Aid.

WILL PROMOTE EDUCATION

The Significant Movement of the Times Is That of the Centenary of the Methodist Egiscopal Church South-Will Spend Millions Among the Uneducated.

The fact that several thousand sol diers were unable to understand the orders given them from their superiors and that many, many thousands could not sign their own names to their questionnaires brought to light a condition so serious that two Southern Representatives at Washington are now introducing bills to promote the education of illiterates throughout the length and breadth of America. Sena tor Hoke Smith, of Georgia, has introduced a bill in the Senate "to promote the education of illiterates, of pen unable to understand and use the 200 lish language, and other resident per sons of foreign birth," and the man measure has been introduced in the House by Hon. William B. Bankhead of Alabama.

The introduction of this important bill means a great deal to the South, which, because of its negroes and mountain whites, has long borne a reputation for illiteracy out of proportion to that of the rest of the coun try. Just what steps will be immediately taken as the result of the passage of the education of illiterates bill et Washington cannot be stated at this time, but, certainly, practical measures will be put into operation for the establishment of schools in both rural districts and cities. Other organizations besides that of the government are at work on the same problem-the establishment of schools in the heart of tenement districts and rural communities being a matter of first importance with all of them. One of the most significant movements of the times in this con-nection is that of the Centenary of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, because that denomination will expend within the next five years over $3,000,000 among the uneducated classes in the Southern and Western States. The church is to raise a fund of $35,000,000 in an eight-day drive in April, the financial campaign being a part of the Centenary Celebration of the denomination. The money is being raised with a view to putting the work of the church on a business basis, the church considering its duty to the illiterates here in America to be among the matters of first importance which it should undertake. A survey has been made and the result of the campaign will be the apporticament of $3,000,000 among the various illiterate population as follows: Mountain pop population is follow: monigrant, $900,060; negroes, $600,000; indians, $150,000; cotton mill population, $150.000; Chris tian literature for all of them, $100.000 With the definite step undertaken at Washington, with one denomination already completing its plans for fur-thering the work among them, and with other churches and organizations getting ready to join hands in their behalf, it is more than possible that the illiterates of the South are in a fair way to soon become educated citizens of the United States.
