THEA CLASS ENTERTAINS.

The Philothea Class of Bunn Baptist church gave a delightful reception Saturday evening, May 31st to the Bunn Baraca's in honor of the returned boys from service for our country.

As the young people came they were welcomed at the entrance by Misses Meta Horton and Alma Hollingsworth, and on entering were served some delicious fruit punch, then ushered to the reception room where they were then received by Misses Louise Curtis and Zelma Holland.

When the young folks all arrived

When the young folks all arrived First we were all entertained by one or several of the Philathea ladies, as they so nicely gave a few plano selections and following that quite a number of the girls sang several patriotic songs; all seemed to thoroughly enjoy them.

A contest was then given, which was known as "The Suitease Contest." It created much excitement and no end of laughter. Q uite a number of other amusing games were participated in creating much merriment. We were indeed glad to have with us our Superintendent Mr. J. N. Perry because he always adds so much to the enjoyment of any group; and on this occasion he kept us all laughing.

After barrels of fun we changed the program: Each Baraca was provided with a girl and were ushered into the dining room which had been so nicely

M. JANIE DENTON.

J. J. Lancaster, of Mapleville, and Mrs.
H. M. Crawley of Littleton. His second wife and little son Averette also survive him. Besides these, he leaves a brother, J. H. Sledge, of Mapleville and two sisters, Mrs. Sarah Carr, of Laurel, and Mrs. Mary Fulshum of Cedar Rock and many other relatives and friends to mourn his death.

Seventeen months ago God in his great love gave to Mr. and Mrs. Colman Denton a dear little girl allowing it tobud on earth to bloom in Heaven. During the stay of the little child she as all children became very dear to mother and father and to submit to the Heavenly Father's will was hard but nevertheless not our will shall be done death. Seventeen months ago God in his

On Tuesday afternoon the dear Angel that loves little chitdren came whispering come all things are now whispering come all things are now ready, taking the gentle spirit of little Janie with her and leaving the peaceful form that we love in our care to be placed as we should see fit to await the great comfing of Christ the Lord. She was indeed a bright child always content with whatever you gave her. We know that she will be missed in the home. But as we miss her let us so labor and wait that when he calls for us that we may be ready to meet her. on the following afternoon her remins were tenderly laid to rest and there we left the little mound covered with flowers to await the blessed coming of our Savior.
