

OLD AGE STARTS WITH YOUR KIDNEYS

Science says that old age begins with weakened kidneys and digestive organs. This being true, it is easy to believe that by keeping the kidneys and digestive organs cleaned and in proper working order old age can be deferred and life prolonged far beyond that expected by any average person.

For over 200 years GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil has been relieving the weaknesses and disability due to advancing years. It is a standard old-time home remedy and needs no introduction. GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil is enclosed in odorless, tasteless capsules containing about 5 drops each. Take them as you would a pill, with a small swallow of water. The oil stimulates the kidney action and enables the organs to throw off the poisons which cause premature old age. New life and strength increase as you continue the treatment. When completely restored continue taking a capsule or two capsules will keep you in health and vigor and prevent a return of the disease.

Do not wait until old age or disease have settled down for good. Go to your druggist and get a box of GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules. Money refunded if they do not help you. Three sizes. But remember to ask for the original imported GOLD MEDAL brand. In sealed packages.

To Holders of Second Liberty Bonds

"Holders of Second Liberty Loan Bonds can make no better use of the interest payment they will receive than to turn it into Thrift and War Savings Stamps." "By so doing, they can make their interest keep on making more interest for them and they will be investing the proceeds of their patriotism in patriotism."

"There were more than 400,000 persons or corporations in the Fifth Federal Reserve District, who invested in the Second Liberty Loan, 454,002 to be exact. Each one of these will reap an interest crop. By sowing it back into War Savings Stamps, that interest is kept growing. If occasion arises and you need what you have invested, War Savings Stamps are always cashable at the postoffice on ten days' written notice."

"The Treasury Department is urging that all persons who possible can, reinvest their interest coupon in Thrift and War Savings Stamps. Second Liberty Loan Bond coupons may be exchanged for Thrift or War Savings Stamps at this bank or at the postoffice. Keep your dollars working."

CHAMPION LASTED THREE ROUNDS BUT HE WAS HELPLESS

Threw Up Sponge When Gong Sounded 4th Round, Body Bloody

IT WAS DEMPSEY'S FIGHT FROM START TO FINISH

Willard Apparently "The Most Surprised Man in the U. S.," Said "My Strength Went From Me in the First Round"; Dempsey Breathing Hard After Nine Minutes' Use of His Arms on Opponent's Body, With Temperature at 110 Degrees; Story Descriptive of the Fight.

Toledo, O., July 4.—By virtue of one of the speediest and most one-sided battles which ever decided a big fight event, Jack Dempsey, who may now wish to be known by his full voting name of William Harrison Dempsey, today became the world's champion heavyweight boxer. To all intents and purposes he whipped the huge Jess Willard, favorite in the meager betting, in one round. Dempsey thought the referee had announced him winner and actually left the ring. But he was called back and the butcher continued for two rounds more when Jess, sitting in his corner, with a bewildered look on his swollen countenance failed to respond to the gong for the fourth round.

"No Use," Said Jess.

"It was no use to continue," said the ex-champion. "My strength went from me in the first round."

He sat there, apparently the most surprised man in the United States at the moment. His right eye was closed and his right cheek swollen and blue with bruises. Blood covered his body and his arms hung so helplessly over the ropes that it seemed as if a child might give him further abuse without arousing his interest.

Winner Breathing Hard.

Dempsey was breathing hard when the fight ended, but it was from exertion and not from punishment. He escaped almost unscathed, but as he had been using his arms like tripammers on the anatomy of his opponent, for nine crowded minutes in a sun that sent the thermometer to 110 degrees, his heart was still pumping at high pressure and he appreciated the breathing spell.

In the next few seconds of the contest it looked as if the experts who had been assigned to keep detailed account of all blows struck might come measurably close to doing so, but it was only for a fraction of a moment.

Dempsey's Quick Work.

After that, the experts did well to count Jack's blows, let alone take note of how each was made. The challenger knocked the big fellow down five times in the first round and had him hanging helplessly on the ropes or draped over his own shoulders most of the time when he was not taking advantage of the count.

Willard Down Five Times.

The crowd thought the fight was over in that round. Willard was down for the fifth time and the count was apparently about to end when the gong sounded. It was a modest gong which could not make itself heard before to many people, and even Dempsey did not get it. He crawled through the ropes and was headed out onto the shoulders of screaming fans when the truth was broken to him, and he was hauled back.

Such fighting as the Kansas ranchman produced was placed on exhibition at the onset. He had stood in his corner a picture of confidence. His smile seemed that of one who had a brief and not unpleasant task before him. He certainly was all set to go, for just before time was called he was heard to remark:

"Let's get this thing over."

He measured the attendance, which disappointed estimates by about 50 per cent, with an appraising eye.

Dempsey presented a contrast. Some of the confidence of his training camp statements appeared in his bearing. The man across from him outweighed him 40 pounds and looked as big and impregnable as a metropolitan bank building. The mood of the challenger was plainly thoughtful and more than one ringside gazer whispered:

"He's licked right now."

ROUND 1. Willard landed the first blow, a left to the head. The champion landed a right and left to the head. Dempsey hooked a left to Willard's stomach. Dempsey missed a left and right to the head. Willard snapped a left to the jaw. Dempsey knocked Willard down with a right to the jaw twice. The champion took a count of six each time, and when he got up Dempsey knocked him down with lefts and rights to the jaw.

The challenger tore into him and knocked him down for a third knock-down, flooring him. It was, the end of the round and Willard was saved by the gong.

ROUND 2. Dempsey rushed Willard in his corner, pounding his jaw with rights and lefts. The champion's right eye was closing from the blows Dempsey landed. Dempsey worked around Willard, carefully measuring him with rights and lefts to the jaw. Willard seemed dazed. Dempsey put three lefts to the bad eye. Willard landed a feeble uppercut. Willard's eye was rapidly closing.

Dempsey had to be called back into the ring for the second round because he thought he had won the fight. Willard staggered to his corner at the end of the second round.

Willard threw up the sponge at the end of the third round.

Probably the majority of clergymen are poor because they preach without notes.

There is reason in all things, but it's different with some people.

LIFT CORNS OR CALLUSES OFF

Doesn't hurt! Lift any corn or callus off with fingers

Don't suffer! A tiny bottle of Freezone costs but a few cents at any drug store. Apply a few drops on the corns calluses and "hard skin" on bottom of feet, then lift them off.

When Freezone removes corns from the toes or calluses from the bottom of feet, the skin beneath is left pink and healthy and never sore, tender or irritated.

YES, I AM STILL IN THE OLD GIN HOUSE ON THE CORNER

I am still in business and am selling flour at a lower price than any other merchant, and in fact anything else that is carried in a first-class Grocery Store.

I also have a large supply of Hay, Grain and Feed Stuff that I can sell at a lower price than the other fellow. So why drive by store and pay more for your feed stuff and pull it back up that long hill from town. I don't feel sorry for you Mr. Farmer but Gee how sorry I do feel for that poor horse and your pocket book. Why do you drive right by a good thing? Come to see me the next time you need anything in my line and I will save you money.
