

NO SECOND CHOICE

We are now showing something new for the particular young man who has never before had a suit just like he wanted.

Our new models come in double-breasts, high shoulders and high waist lines; some have belts with coat deeply vented. These styles are being highly complimented by our customers. If you are looking for something new you'll find it at McBrayer's.

He also carries a complete line for older men in greys, blues and mixed colors. Come and be fitted in a new outfit is all we ask.

You'll find Mack, Poe and Joe to welcome you.

Our line consists of

"Everything for Daddy and the Boys"

TAR DROPS

—Next week is Court week. —Read the big land sale advertisement in this issue.

—Cotton sold for 10 cents a pound in Louisburg yesterday.

—Mr. J. K. Brevin has accepted a position with the Franklin Times.

—When in town next week come around and subscribe for the Times.

—Work in the new electrical machinery for town's plant has begun.

—Quite a large number of our people attended the circus in Raleigh Saturday.

—Mr. R. W. Hudson is displaying a number of the latest style Ford automobiles, equipped with starter and dimmers.

—We are requested to state that there will be a box party at New Hope School house on next Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock, for the benefit of the school. Everybody is invited to attend.

—Mr. E. L. Harris, of Inez, was in Louisburg the past week with two loads of pigs, 42 in number that he sold for $540.00. Mr. Harris raises a fine hog and has met with much success with them.

—Messrs. G. W. Ford & Son are preparing to build a large brick mercantile building on the east corner of Spring and Nash Streets. They will occupy this building, as they have sold the building they now occupy to Freeman & Co.

—Mr. G. D. Taylor has purchased the Mrs. R. R. Harris farm just outside of town on the Nashville road. This is one of the most desirable pieces of property around here and Mr. Taylor says he is going to improve it in many ways.

WHEN Buck Williams rescued the quiet little Hindu from the wreck of the burning diner he performed an act that the latter repaid with interest not long after.

Swami Ram's Reincarnation

is the title of a new story about to appear serially in this newspaper. It is a story of Mexican bandits, with a mine worth millions at stake, involving oriental mysticism. From the moment that Tom Davenport noticed the dusky-skinned native of India skulking along with a bottle of milk under his arm, you are wondering what the mystery is all about.
