IN MEMORIAM.

"In my Father's house are many mansions—I go to prepare a place for you, that where I am there ye may be also," said our Savior to his followers, and into these mansions on the morning of December 9, 1920, we have every reason to believe, passed our beloved friend and companion, Lee Wheelless, son of Mr. A. M. Wheelless, of Justice, for truly in his short life he followed in the footsteps of Jesus, which always lead to this home "eternal in the heavens."

Those who knew him need no enumeration of his goodness and worth as a friend and companion, and to any who did not know him we could not give a fair conception of his worth. Let it be said however that unselfishness, the one virtue most apt to include all others, was predominant in his character, and in living for others he became a friend to the friendless. Everyone who has been in any way associated with him must be conscious of personal loss in his death and should be nobler and better for his example.

The shock was sudden, but "So soon comes death". In spite of the efforts of friends and loved ones to keep him in this world of sorrow and sadness, the death angel came as a thief in the night and bore his soul away to him that gave it. The mission of his life seemed short, having passed only sixteen summers, but the music which his presence called forth in the hearts of his friends and loved ones will never cease. His life was one of purity and nobleness and though the wounded hearts are bleeding, yet how comforting it is to know "Lee" has returned to God. From the flower garden of time an angel has plucked one of earth's fairest, brightest, rarest jewels.

To his loved ones the memory and influence of such a son and brother will be a precious heritage, and while home can never be to them the same without him they have the consolation of knowing that his God will be their God. "A very present help in time of trouble."

"We shall meet, but we shall miss him, there will be one vacant chair." In Sunday School, church, school, around the fireside, everywhere all through the long days and nights we will miss him, but let us become reconciled and live to meet him "Over There." Weep not dear mother, father, brother and sisters, Lee is waiting on the other shore where there will be no parting.

He was a member of Justice Baptist Church and the burial services were conducted by Rev. Morris. The pall bearers, his intimate friends and relatives were honorary Bernard Stallings, Tommie Lee Stokes, Raymond Perry, Junie Hayes, Clayton Edwards and Arogh Wilson. Assistants: Bennie Wheelless, Elijah Wheelless, Thad Lawrence, Cecil Hayes, Edward Dean and Spencer Boone. After friends and loved ones had gazed for their last time on the form of one so beloved and mother, earth had opened her great arms to receive her jewel, he was tenderly laid to rest in the family burying ground while the choir sweetly sang, "There'll be no Dark Valley," "Death is Only a Dream," and "My Faith Looks up to Thee," and left to sleep beneath the emblems of purity and love which kind friends and relatives had brought as a last tribute of affection.

But blessed be God, we rest assured that while his body sleeps awaiting the resurrection, the victorious spirit has winged its flight to "Realms of eternal day."

Just on the other side he waits
And you may hear his call,
Inside of heaven's golden gate
Its pearl and jasper walls.

What though the way be rough and dark,
O! fear no wind or tide
Your son and brother await your own life boat
Just on the other side.

Mr. P. LaDuke, Farmer, Says, "You Bet Rats Can Bite Through Metal."

"I had feed bins lined with zinc last year, rats got through pretty soon. Was out $18. A $1 pkg. of RAT-SNAP killed so many rats that I've never been without it since. Our colt dog never touched RAT-SNAP." You try it. Three sizes, 25c, 50c, $1. Sold and guaranteed by The Allen Bros. Co.

Mr. Harding says he isn't going to revive the force bill. But Mr. Lodge hasn't been talking to him recently.

Alabama Minister Relieved

Stomach Troubles Made Him Feel Sick at Meal Times, But Now Always Enjoys His Meals.

DO YOU enjoy your meals? Eat without the dread of the after effects? Lack of appetite, and a disagreeable, sick-at-the-stomach feeling after meals, usually indicate that your digestive organs are not working properly. As a result, you will feel weak, lose weight and lack the energy that is to be derived from well-digested food. A valuable help in correcting such conditions is mentioned by the Rev. M. K. McKenzie, of Route 1, Section, Ala., who writes: "I had stomach trouble. When I would go to eat, I would turn sick. I took one bottle of Ziron, and it cured me. Am always ready for my meals and enjoy them. I think it is a fine medicine." If your food hurts you, if your appetite is poor, if you are pale, weak and run-down, and have other symptoms that indicate your system needs help, try Ziron. It will put iron into your blood and help build you up. Take it according to directions, and if not benefited by the first bottle, the money-back guarantee will protect you. Ask your druggist.
