

COTTON EXPORT MOVE LAUNCHED

ANNUAL SESSION OF AMERICAN
COTTON ASSOCIATION GOES ON RECORD ENDORSING EXPORT CORPORATION.

Raleigh—Delegates to the Second Annual Convention of the American Cotton Association held in Raleigh January 13th went on record as unanimously supporting a co-operative marketing association and the newly organized Cotton Export Company. L. S. Tomlinson, who has been at the head of the State Association during the past year, was re-elected President.

Over a thousand delegates were in attendance at the meeting which was addressed by Richard Manning, former Governor of South Carolina, Aaron Sapiro, Attorney for the California Fruit Exchange, and Hollins Randolph, Attorney for the Federal Reserve Board, sixth district.

Governor Manning dwelt at length on the advantages that the Export Corporation would offer Southern farmers and Southern people generally. When the American Products Export and Import Corporation was organized about two months ago, Governor Manning was chosen its President. Joseph Walker of Columbia, S. C., formerly of the cotton firm of Hollowell & Walker, is General Manager for the corporation. The Corporation plans to stabilize the domestic cotton market by shipping the South's surplus staple to Europe. One shipment has already been made and others will follow very shortly.

Of considerable interest to the convention was an address by Mr. Sapiro, who has had extensive experience in marketing problems. He sketched the work accomplished in California and urged the State of North Carolina to be one of the leaders in the co-operative movement. Mr. Hollins Randolph explained the difference between the American Products Export and Import Corporation and the bankers export corporation, formed under the Edge Act. The Edge Corporation is limited primarily to discounting and cannot deal in commodities, whereas the organization headed by Governor Manning is actually buying and selling cotton and the other chief products of the South.

A State-wide campaign in the interest of the Export Corporation has been launched, and meetings will be held in practically every cotton growing county in North Carolina. Mr. L. S. Tomlinson, President of the State Association, has already arranged a number of meetings which he will address. Wednesday, he will speak in Albemarle; Thursday, January 20th, in Troy; Friday, January 21st, in Shelby; and Saturday, January 22nd, in Rutherfordton. Mr. O. C. Maner of the Export Corporation will also speak at the Shelby and Rutherfordton meetings and Mr. H. L. C. Stevens, also a representative of the Export Company, will address the Albemarle and Troy gatherings.

Realizing that the European countries are not absorbing anywhere near the amount of cotton they used to in pre-war days, cotton men of the South have for months past been looking around for a way to remedy conditions. Indications are that the American Products Export and Import Corporation will solve the question. To enable Europe to secure the cotton it needs, proper credit facilities must be afforded and the Export Company with its $1,000,000 capitalization will be able to extend such credits. Stock of the American Products Export & Import Corporation is being offered at $10 per share and subscriptions are being received in cash or in cotton or Liberty Bonds at the market price. The company's North Carolina office is located in the State Agricultural Building at Raleigh.

Endorsements of the Cotton Export Corporation have been received from many sources. Governor W. P. G. Harding of the Federal Reserve Board and Governor M. B. Wellborn of the Federal Reserve Bank of Atlanta have come out in support of the program. Former Secretary of the Treasury, W. G. McAdoo, has endorsed the movement enthusiastically. Among the North Carolina organizations that are actively supporting the campaign are: American Cotton Association, Raleigh Clearing House, North Carolina A. & E. College, Extension Department; North Carolina Association of Life Underwriters; North Carolina Press Association; Interstate Tobacco Growers' Association; North Carolina Association of Hosiery Manufacturers; Charlotte Chamber of Commerce; Rocky Mount Chamber of Commerce, and many banks and prominent individuals.

The American Cotton Association at its meeting in Raleigh faced squarely the fact that the total cotton exports of the South had fallen off 73% since the pre-war period. In the past the Southern States have looked to foreign capital to finance their exports. Appreciating that this is no longer possible, the cotton men of this State and of the South generally are banding together to assure the joint success of the Co-operative Marketing Idea and the Cotton Export Corporation.

STATE TO LEARN HOW BROOD SOW CAN HELP

With "one brood sow on every farm properly cared for," North Carolina will be on the way toward a solution of her agricultural troubles, according to the swine office of the N. C. Agricultural Extension Service, which is going to back the brood sow to the limit in a campaign of education concerning the possibilities of producing pork at home.

With the active support of live farmers, bankers, business men, the press, county farm agents, and prominent organizations, the attention of the state is to be riveted upon the problem of pork production in North Carolina. Through paid advertising, circular letters, printed bulletins, and meetings, the discouraged cotton or tobacco farmer will learn how to take care of a brood sow—produce his own meat and have some left to sell.

The brood sow is credited with building schools and good roads, of lifting mortgages and educating children in the middle western states, and those who know say the same results can be obtained in North Carolina in time.

The movement for a brood sow on every farm has the hearty support of the North Carolina Cotton and Tobacco Associations, whose program of reduced acreage of these two crops permits the planting of more grazing crops for hogs.
