The Biggest Thing In The South.

That's the title of a little booklet just issued by the Cotton and Tobacco Growers Cooperative Associations. It contains a brief statement about the growers big movement to bring prosperity to North Carolina, and also a number of endorsements from some of the leading citizens of the state. Extra copies can be obtained by writing to the associations at Raleigh.

Have You Taken Typhoid Treatment?

There were 128 cases of typhoid fever reported to the North Carolina State Board of Health for the month of May from 57 counties in the State. Rockingham is charged up with the largest number—seven, and is followed closely by Wayne, Lenoir and Johnston with six each. Durham led the cities with six. Winston-Salem had three, Wilmington two, Charlotte and Raleigh, one each. A study shows that typhoid has not been epidemic anywhere, as there is an average of only two cases from counties where the disease exists. However, the Board of Health points out to the people that many cases may result from these few through contact with them, and through contamination of food, water and milk by flies or human carriers. For this reason, if it has been over two years since you took the treatment preventing typhoid, do the wise thing and repeat it now. During the coming months free protection against typhoid will be offered in half the counties of the State. If yours is not one of them, it should be and it is no fault of the State Board of Health that it is not.

Put a little lard or a touch of vaseline on the little chicks head. Just a touch should be used. If there are signs of head lice after the first greasing, renew if necessary but be careful not to use too much. Limberneck is easily prevented but hard to cure. Chickens will eat worms in dead chickens, rats and meat left lying around, which causes limberneck. See that all putrefying meat is buried or burned. If your chicks do get the worms in their throats crook a small wire, a long wire hair pin is very good, dip in turpentine and run down the chicks throat. You will usually be able to pull the worm out by this device. There is always a demand for poultry, especially for well fattened poultry. A well known Washington firm will buy all shipped to them at highest market price (per pound). A firm in Richmond offers to buy all sent them provided, both chickens and eggs are graded. Another offers to pay 75 cents per dozen for eggs the year around, if 200 can be shipped daily. Eggs shall be uniform in color and size and candled before shipping. Waterglass which is left over after being used to preserve eggs during the winter is splendid for a paste. Why not preserve eggs in water-glass for winter use? Eggs so kept may be used at home and the winter eggs sold for high prices. An old worn counterpane makes an excellent silence cloth for a dining table. Men's old felt hats make good holders. Cut in sizes larger than your hand. They are better than any pad. Mrs. George W. Vanderbilt, president of the North Carolina State Fair, is offering a medal for the best drawing, pencil or otherwise and another medal for the best specimen of clay modeling, done by school children of North Carolina under 18 years of age. Lets have a large number of entries in this contest from Franklin County. Each year when the Seventh Grade Examination questions are sent out, questions are sent for a test on Home Demonstration Work. The papers of the girls and women who take the test are sent to the office of the Board of Education, corrected and Diplomas given for a satisfactory examination and two or four years successful Home Demonstration Work. This plan has been followed by the County Superintendent and Home Demonstration Agent for the past three years. We give below answers from two girls to the first question on the examination this year, "Of What Value Has Your Club Work Been To You?"

My club which produces almost everything needed for the family and large supplies of fruit and vegetables by being in the club work. I have been able to save this surplus and in doing so have found learning, responsibility have been taught to my club members. Health is promoted by the club work. I have worked in the tree, getting chickens and as well as I have been in pasture feeding my pigs. I have great pleasure in having a club which has been so successful and have had wonderful times at the club parties. I'm so glad I was a member because I would not have been invited if I had not been in the work. The club work has taught me many lessons which will help me all through life. All the fruits and vegetables which have been going to waste on the farms are now saved by canning, preserving or pickling. By selling my canned products I have clothed myself, paid music bills and helped to furnish my home. I have helped to pay my way through my first year at college and now have a Liberty Bond and a fine Jersey cow and calf as a result of my work as a club girl. I have emphasized the canning phase of the Home Demonstration Work as that is the side that has meant most to me. I have been trying to pay my way through high school and college by the proceeds of my sale of canned goods. There are other phases of the club work which I could not mention but they are all so valuable.

There is right much sickness in our neighborhood. Mr. Joannie Edwards and Mr. Joseph Denton's babies are very sick. There will be a childrens day at our church the second Sunday in July. We are expecting a nice time. A very nice program is being arranged by Mrs. Effie Medlin, Mrs. Mollie Perry and Miss Hattie Floyd. There will be all day service and dinner on the ground. Everybody is cordially invited. If this misses the waste basket we will probably come again. BOSS.

Hope she will soon be home again. Mr. Babe Perry is building an additional room to his residence near the station. MRS. HILL'S CASE LIKE THAT OF MANY WOMEN

Had Liver and Kidney Troubles, Was Weak, Run-Down and Nervous. After Taking Two Bottles of SANUX She Feels Better Than In Years and Gains Six Pounds, Says North Carolina Lady.

The statement made recently by a North Carolina lady very accurately describes the troubles of a great many women everywhere. Judging from the hundreds of similar cases which have come to the attention of the directors of the United Medico-Chemical Hospital since a general distribution of the treatment now known as Sanux was commenced a few months ago. "I had liver and kidney troubles," said Mrs. Hill, whose address is R. F. D. No. 2, Durham, N. C., "and suffered terribly with indigestion. I didn't want the slightest thing to eat and the little food I did swallow disagreed with me. I had become nervous and run-down and often my back pained me so I had to give up and go to bed. I was badly constipated and had to take some kind of laxative every night to get my bowels to move and in the morning I would have a bad taste in my mouth and felt so dizzy and weak. Then a friend told me how much Sanux had helped her and I got a bottle and started taking it. I've taken just two bottles and all my troubles have left me. I have a fine appetite and can eat anything without suffering afterwards. I sleep well and feel better than in years and have even gained six pounds in weight. I gladly recommend Sanux to any one suffering from stomach troubles."

If you are among the many unfortunate who suffer as Mrs. Hill did, if your stomach is disordered, your appetite poor, if you feel weak, nervous and tired out all the time, if you look haggard and pale and do not weigh as much as you should then go to the nearest drug store and get a bottle or two of Sanux, which so many people in this section who once felt just as you now feel, declare entirely relieved them and put them back on their feet. Sanux is a purely vegetable compound and contains nothing harmful. It is sold in this section by the following druggists in 3-ounce bottles at $1.25. Look for the name SANUX.
