

Buy a pipe—
and some P.A.

Get the joy that's due you!

We print it right here that if you don't know the "feel" and the friendship of a joy's jimmy pipe—GO GET ONE! And—get some Prince Albert and bang a howdy-do on the big-smoke-gong!

Prince Albert is sold in tippy red bags, tidy red tins, handsome pound and half pound tin humidors and in the pound crystal glass humidors with sponge moistener top.

Copyright 1921 by R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Co. Winston-Salem, N. C.

For, Prince Albert's quality—flavor—coolness—fragrance—is in a class of its own! You never tasted such tobacco! Why—figure out what it alone means to your tongue and temper when we tell you that Prince Albert can't bite, can't parch! Our exclusive patented process fixes that!

Prince Albert is a revelation in a makin's cigarette! My, but how that delightful flavor makes a dent! And, how it does answer that hankering! Prince Albert rolls easy and stays put because it is crimped cut. And, say—oh, go on and get the papers or a pipe! Do it right now!

No Chance.
Returning home from the dentist's, where he had gone to have a loose tooth drawn, little Raymond reported as follows: "The doctor told me 'fore he began that if I cried or screamed it would cost me a dollar, but if I was a good boy it would be only fifty cents. Did you scream?' his mother asked. How could I? answered Raymond. You only gave me fifty cents.—Continued.

BOY SCOUTS AT CAMP.
The Boy Scouts of Troop No. 1, Bunn, N. C. spent several days the past week in camp near Clifton's Pond. The tents were pitched high up on a hill in cool shade of the large live oaks out of the way of flies and mosquitoes.
Several boys finished their tests for first class Scouts while in camp, and all of them passed several tests that raised their rating as Scouts. In swimming and cooking is where they made a reputation especially in cooking. The host of ladies that visited and took lunch with the boys, gave unlimited praise to the delightful dishes they prepared out there over the camp fire.
The Camp was flooded each day with visitors full to the brim with praise, that brought joy to the heart of every boy.

With a farewell dip in the pond, the boys loaded trucks for home, affirming that this had been an event filled with recreation, education and untold joy.—Scribe.
