Red Cross Trains 147 Blind Vets In Useful Work

Training designed to fit them for the battle of life was taken by 147 blinded ex-service men at the Red Cross Institute for the Blind, near Baltimore, Md., during the fiscal year 1920-1921, according to the report of the Institute for that period.

Of this number, 19 have gone on to other institutions, in almost every case to institutions where those having sight are receiving advanced education. The blind ex-service men who have entered such institutions are provided with special text-books in Braille, reading which they were taught at the Red Cross Institute.

Twelve men have passed from the Institute to successfully carry on some occupation or business for which they were fitted by special training. A few have withdrawn from the Institute because of poor physical condition, 14 are receiving further "training on the job" and 57 are still in training.

Red Cross Plans $6,000,000 Effort To Save Children

Medical care and clothing for thousands of children in Central and Eastern Europe are outlined as the activities of the American Red Cross in Europe for the current year, says a statement on the eve of the Annual Roll Call of the organization. These activities, supplemental to the feeding operations of the European Relief Council of which Herbert Hoover is chairman, are designed to provide the most adequate and balanced relief within the resources of private philanthropy.

Through the establishment of child welfare stations in the centers of population of those countries where adequate medical care is not now obtainable, the American Red Cross plans to provide the medical assistance needed to restore these children to a normally healthy life. The sum of $6,000,000 has been made available for this work.

"THE FRANKLIN RIFLES."

(With all our Old Veterans.)
Old friends, I yet remember well,
The time you marched away—
You did not know that "war is hell,"
For you were young that day.

Our Louisburg-town was all aglow,
With people, young and old,
They came to see our brave boys go—
Our soldier boys, so bold!

How merrily the band did play—
You marched to college-hall;
The pretty speeches made that day,
Won great applause from all.

We gathered in the church to pray,
The night before you went,
That God would bless you night and day,
In field and march and tent.

You said you all would soon be back
Such was your jolly mood—
You would not hear a rifle crack
Nor see a drop of blood!

One boy among you had been hit
By Cupid's "curious" dart,
Most meekly he succumbed to it
And married his sweetheart.

And then you left him to his fate
While you went forth to war—
No Yankee bullet hit the pate
Of happy Johnnie Shaw—

You went to war—you did your best—
God bless you every one—
Sometime, I hope, you'll sweetly rest,
Your work on earth well done.

But you had hard and bitter strife—
We did not count the cost,
And many a brave man lost his life
Before "our cause" was lost.

Now we are old but let's be glad
Our sins can be forgiven—
There's yet much comfort to be had;
And then, beyond, lies Heaven!

Let's read our Bible "my old brothers"
It is rich and great and grand;
Tell its promises to others;
Help them gain the Happy Land.

Some sweet old day, our life-work done
We'll see our Saviour and our friends—
The Great Eternal life begun,
Where pleasure never ends.
