-Commissioner of Revenue Watts and Mrs. Margaret Deland said today that only one week more as of their lives were read by Mrs. remains to income tax avers to make their returns and pay their taxes with out penalty or interest. The time ex-pires on Wednesday, March 15th, at Best by Miss Ida Mae Yow. This of five per cent, which in no case will in the beginning and its comic ending be less than one dollar, will accrue and be collected on returns voluntar-ily made on or before May 15th. The Commissioner will grant extensions of time from March 15th to persons, part nerships and corporations whenever they apply for such extensions and show good cause for them. Where was much enjoyed. Mrs. Mann read a description of England's Princess and her Wedding as current topic. This had been as-signed to Mrs. Spivey but she could not be present. The close attention and interest with which this paper was received goes to show that howshow good cause for them. Where was received goes to show that how-extensions are granted interest at the rate of six per cent per annum from March 15th will be due and will be collected in every case. Make your returns now and save penalty or in-

PUNKIN CENTER.

Mr. Editor: I know that you and all the town folks are anxious to see the President but I am having such a greasy meat time out here I can't get off it seems. Messrs. Sanderford and Stroud from Granville county have moved into the corporate limits of Punkin Center. corporate limits of Funkin Center, and they believe in having a greasy meat time. They have already given us several parties, and Funkin Center has livened up considerably. Of course I have to make music at these parties, and don't get the chance to dance a bit with the Honey Bettles, but enjoy looking at them dance. looking at them dence. The stork flew over Punkin Center on Washingnew over Einlich Center of Washing-ton's birthday and left a young Frog, and old Dr. Frog is wearing a per-petusi grin. But he's mighty mad cause its a boy. He calls him George Washington, but I tell him that name won't suit, and that I will name him whan he sets old enough to (in the when t suit, and that I will name him when he gets old enough to join the club. I received a letter a few days ago from Jeff, (the Junior member of the firm of Mutt and Jeff) which I am sending you for publication. I hope you will print this letter for the bene-following announcements for the week fit of your many readers, especially. "Uncle" John Allen the champion spell
