

1922 SPRING SHOWINGS

In Latest Styles and Fabrics

New Skirting Material 40 inch wide.
$3.50 to $5.00 yd.

Big lot short lengths in Calico,
Bleaching, Percale, Gingham, Suiting
from 10c to 20c yd.
Nothing in this lot higher than 20c yd.

New lot of Stout Dresses received.
Sizes 42 to 46 1-2.

NEW LOTS OF HATS COMING IN DAILY.

Our Spring line of Men's, Young Men's and Boys' Suits are about complete. A few hints to those who buy early. Why go to a tailor and pay big prices when you can step into our store and get fitted on short notice. The folks who make our clothes have studied how to fit almost everybody. A few minutes of your time and we'll demonstrate to you how it's done.

The array of styles are wonderful this season. A new model for all. Conservatives as well as sport and semi-sport models are displayed and prices that will carry you back to the days before the war.

COME IN AND LOOK THEM OVER

Louisburg's Quality Department Store

F. W. WHELESS, Proprietor

Corner Market and Nash Streets

LOUISBURG, N. C.

IN MEMORY OF THOMAS FRAZIER.

The death angels visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Frazier, on Sunday evening, February 19, 1922, and took from them their son, Thomas, which they so dearly loved. He had been sick for three weeks with pneumonia. He was a faithful member of Harris Chapel Baptist church. Always willing to do all he could to help with the work of the church. He was twenty-eight years of age, so young to leave this world but God does all things well for them that love him. So weep not dear mother but try by the power of God to meet him again where there is no parting. We should not weep for him for we know he is in Heaven awaiting to meet his love ones there. He leaves a father, mother, four sisters, five brothers, and a lot of relatives and friends to mourn their loss. The funeral was held at his home by his pastor, Rev. Howard. Several beautiful songs were sung. Then the pall bearers carried him to the new made grave. Followed by a large crowd of Juniors. The Sunday school girls carried the many flowers that had been sent by his friends. He was tenderly laid to rest beneath a mound of beautiful flowers.

A dear friend from us has gone
How sad it is to think

His smiling face on earth
No more we'll see.

His life on earth was very short
But Jesus knew best
How calmly and sweetly he's sleeping
On his dear Savior's breast.

The angles gathered around him
Who wanted him to go
And join them in that Happy land
Where there's joy forever more.

With the angles he is marching now
Over in that happy lane
A glorious crown in on his head
And a glittering harp in his hand.

He left this world of sin and sorrow
He has laid life's burden down
He took his Savior hand in hand
And went home to wear his crown.

Dear parents do not grieve
For him dear brothers
And sisters do not weep
For he is waiting at the gate
His loved one there to greet.

Thou are gone I miss thee dear friend
But I know you're free from care
And when here our work is ended
We will meet you over there.

No parting words are said up there
No good-bye kiss is given
No farewell tears are ever
Said with Jesus up in Heaven.

"ONE WHO KNEW HIM."

OBITUARY.

Mrs. J. T. Neal, nee Miss Jodie Bartholomew, was born Feb. 7th, 1881. Her girlhood was spent for the most part at Castalia, where she was a general favorite at school and at home and won many friends by her unselfishness and thoughtfulness of others. On Dec. 4th, 1901 she was married to Mr. J. T. Neal, of Centerville and lived there the rest of her life. As long as she had good health she was most active in every new movement which tended to uplift her community and make it a brighter, happier place to live. The school and the church were both greatly helped and strengthened by her assistance. She was the founder and the leading spirit of the missionary society of which she was president for a long time.

She was vice-president of the Franklin County Missionary Union from the time of its organization until failing health compelled her to resign the office. She will be greatly missed by all these organizations, but her influence still lives and her example is an inspiration to others to go and do like wise.

She died Feb. 14th, 1922 at Mercy Hospital, Baltimore, Md. It was hard for her to have to die out there so far from home and loved ones and there were so many reasons why she wanted to live; but she did not want to be a care to others and she hoped that going to the hospital might be the means of saving her life and restoring her health. For a while it seemed that her hopes were to be realized, then suddenly she was taken away. It seems hard for us to understand, but God knows best and in our sorrow we are comforted by the knowledge that she was ready for the Kingdom and that she is free from suffering and sorrow. She cannot come back to us but her being there will be an added incentive to us to be ready to meet her when our call comes.

A LOVING FRIEND.

"Reading maketh a full man." This probably refers to one of the best cellars.—New York American.

General Pershing says the Army needs second lieutenants. Vindicated at last.—Army and Navy Journal.

Powwows may save the world from the howwows.—Asheville Times.

A TONIC

Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic restores Energy and Vitality by Purifying and Enriching the Blood. When you feel its strengthening invigorating effect, see how it brings color to the cheeks and how it improves the appetite, you will then appreciate its true tonic value.

Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic is simply Iron and Quinine suspended in syrup. So pleasant even children like it. The blood needs QUININE to Purify it and IRON to Enrich it. Destroys Malarial germs and Grip germs by its Strengthening Invigorating Effect. 60c.

The Good Old Days Are Back Again

Remember the days when a man could get a suit made to measure at about the price of a ready made?

Well, that's the big piece of news I have for you—they're back again!

During the "high price" years, many men accustomed to wearing suits made to their order were deprived of this pleasure because of PRICE.

These men will be glad to hear that the tremendous facilities of the SERVICE SHOP have again made possible the popular priced, individually measured, individually tailored suit.

Our prices lower again! Our line proves it.

Agent for FITWELL TAILORING CO.
S. W. PURVIS, Manager.

THE SERVICE SHOP

Your Clothes Cleaned and Pressed at Reasonable Prices

Seed Irish Potatoes

MAINE GROWN, . . . 75 and 80c Per Peck

Ford Casings and Tubes cheap. A full line of Heavy and Fancy Groceries at all times. Am still selling Shoes cheap. Come to see me when in need of any. Will meet competition on anything for the Cash.

Yours truly,

J. W. PERRY

NASH STREET

LOUISBURG, N. C.