Albert Wholess, of Ingleside, spent with his parents.

Cariton McGregor and Gervals Park er, of Wake Forest College, were here-for the week-end at McGregor's home. Mrs. L. B. Tatum, of Richmond, Va., has been visiting relatives and friends in Midway.

Miss Alberta Morgan, of Castalia, spent the week-end with Maybelle and Mozelle McGregor.

Mark Hayes, Arthur Pearce and Johnnie Faulk spent Thursday in Raleigh.

The bad weather and consequent bad roads have prevented folks of this community going to Raleigh to hear Dr. Truitt. A number of them, however, hope to hear him before the meeting closes.

Our pastor, Rev. A. Cary, was here

Saturday and conducted three preach-ing services, which were well attended considering the conditions of the Thru negligence of our correspond ent the prayer meeting services held here each Sunday night have not here tofore received mention in these columns. The plan has been to select a leader and subject for discussion at each meeting for the following meeting, the service consisting of discussion of the subject by various members in talks and written papers, sing-ing, prayer, and special music. Sun-day night the subject was "Self Conday night the subject was "self Con-troll"; the subject for the previous service, "Who is My Neighbor?" and for next Sunday night "Why Halt You Between Two Opinions?" Everyone is cordially invited.

The play, "Better Than Gold" was carried to Hickory Rock Friday night,
The weather was entirely too rough for a very good attendance.

Jesse Smith was taken sick Monday night. The exact nature of his malady is not known at the present writing. We are pleased to report convales-cense of all our sick folks. We hope they will be entirely restored within a few days.

Robert Williams, of Tarboro, who as been with us during the last week has been sick for a few days. We were sorry to learn Sunday that

Ernest Jennings of Cedar Rock was suddenly taken sick with colic. Re-cent reports indicate that he has recovered however. Last Saturday night George Davis negro, was fatally shot near here. Mugy Harris is charged with the crime The weapon used was a shot gun at close range; the discharge entered d's left side from behind The testimony of several persons was that he lay in water for some time af-ter being shot, his body becoming filled with water thru the hole formed by the discharge. No arrests have yet cluded in our high school curriculum. Beneficial results are manifold and our young intellectuals in political questions is manifested not only in debates in the literary societies, but also in their casual conversation. We would recommend this text to other schools that have not tried it.

A geographic motion picture is to self e shown here this week by Miss Vio-

writer wishes to embrace this opportunity to urge two things of the members of his community and of

First, let as many as possible go to Raleigh and hear Dr. George W. Truitt. He is conceded to be one of the world's leading preachers, and an opportunity to hear him is rare, inas. much as he is not a regular evangelist. The meeting will continue till about Thursday.

Second, let as many as can subscribe to THE TIMES. It is your county or-gan, and you need to keep posted on local occurrences. Your community is being regularly featured.

A sumptuous supper was given the faculty of the high school at the home of Mrs. Sarah Stallings, Saturday night.

The boys literary society of the high. The boys literary society of the high toverement a taxone income, interest to debate commencement, the query: Resolved, That Congress should pass a soldders' bonus bill. The girls chose the negative, and the following despendence of the commencement of the commencement of the first congress and the following despendence of the commencement of the first congress of the light toverement a taxone income, interest carable baters have been appointed.

Affirmative Zack Perry Raymond Perry Gladys Wilder Sadie Stallings Marvin Bowden Beulah House Willie Rice (Alternate) Ruby Wheless

TREASURY SAVINGS CERTHI-

More than one-half million dollars has been saved and invested in United States Treasury Savings Certificates in the Fifth Federal Reserve District during the month of January, according to a statement made by Postmas-ter Davis of the Louisburg Post Office The postmaster has just received a letter from Howard T. Cree. Government Director of Savings at Richmond, Virginia, in which he states that sales for January have far surpassed expec-tations. From 226 post offices reporting and mail orders received at the Federal Reserve Bank in Rich-riond, the sales total $562,650.

This new offering of certificates has proved very popular in that they are issued the denominations of $25, $100, and $1,000 and may be purchased at a flat discount price of twenty per cent off their maturity value. People cent off their maturity value. People seeking a safe investment, with a guar antee as to both principal and interest, have been quick to take advan-tage of this attractive issue of "baby ads" and bave bought them in large

Poatmaster Davis says, "For those mise of cucking investment of funds, nothing a more attractive than these new say large certificates which yield four and the half per cent interest on purchase price, compounded semi-annually, if held to maturity, five years from date of lesse."

THE FRANKLIN TIMES

FROM YOUNGSVILLE.

On Monday night, March 6th, a declamation contest was held in the school auditorium, the children of the gan and Warren Taylor, of Spring elementary grades participating, Mary e, were visitors here Sunday af-Lilly Timberlake was selected by the committee as prize winner in this con test was held on Friday night, Feb. 24, in which Virginia Jones won first

Following is the program of the elementary contest:

Poorhouse Nan-Eugenia Alien.
A Smack in School-Martha Crow ell Mitchell.

A Kentucky Philosopher—Frances

Ragan. So Was I—Mary Lilly Timberlake. A Boy and His Stomach—Henry Tim

Sister's Best Fellow-Winta Win-

When the Teacher Gets Cross-Es

when the Teacher Gets Cross—Es-ther Bell Watkins.

A Leak in the Dyke—Esther Young.

Program of High School Contest:

Mine Now is Thine—Jassamine Ches ham.

As the Moon Rose-Ora Holden.

Kate Shelley—Eva Lumpkin, A plea for Purity in American Pol-ics—Cecil Stephenson.

The Famine—Clara Underwood. A Telephone Romance-Virginia

The final contest between the Frank linton and Youngsville Basket Ball teams was witnessed here last Friday afternoon, in one of the most inter esting games seen on our court. The final score stood 14 to 3 in favor of the Frankliston quint. The visitors outclassed the home team in almost every way. Howeven it was the general opinion that the local players have developed fast since they started about Jan. 1st. Rowe for the visitors did some fine work, cribbing 5 of their field goals.

Following is the line-up: Youngsville Franklinton Winston, R. R. F. Mitchiner Pearce L. F. C. R. G. L'nderwood Rowe Winston, H. Zinston C. L. G. Joyner Personal Fouls: Youngsville, 2; Vinston C. Franklinton 2.

Foul goals. Youngsville 1; Frank Field goals: Youngsville 1; Frank nton 7. Referee, Smithdeal.

INCOME TAX INFORMATION.

Compensation for personal services in the form of salaries, wages, Com-missions, fees, tips, bonuses and penons form the principal item in the returns of millions of taxpayers. As a general rule, all such income is subject to tax. However, there are exceptions with which the taxpayer in the interests of self as well as Government, should familiarize him-

Salaries paid to its officers and em let Alexander, of Louisburg. Let us ployees by a state or "political subdivision thereof" (city, town, county or Last fall the Literary Digest was included in our high school curriculum.

The reason for this is that the Federresults are manifold and The awakened interest of intellectuals in political a notary public commissioned by a state are not taxable, neither ar paid jurors by a state or political sub-division thereof. Witnesses in law suits, however, even though subpoen-ed by state's attorney are not considered employees of the state, and fees received by them are subject to taxa-

The Commissions of a receiver appointed by state, county or municipal court are not taxable. The Commissions of an administrator or executo are taxable because they are not paid by a state or political subdivision, but out of the estate of the deceased. Salaries of Federal officers and employees, including those of the terriories and the District of Columbia are subject to tax. Salaries and fees paid by the United States to its ambassa-dors, ministers or consuls accredited to foreign countries or by a foreign Government to United States citizens are taxable, and the amount spent by them for entertaining is not deducti-ble. Fees paid a juror by the Federal Government are taxable income, like

Inquiries received ndicate the impression in the minds of many persons that all school teachers are exempt from payment of the income tax. Teachers are not exempt because en gaged in educational work. As a rule the salaries paid public school teachers are exempt, but only for the reason that they are employees of a state or political subdivision thereof.

The special exemption of $2,500 allowed under the revenue act of 1918 persons in active service in military and naval forces is repealed by the revenue act of 1921. Soldiers and sailors are allowed only the exemp-tions granted other individuals, $1,000 if single, or married and first living with husband or wife, $2,500 if married and living with wife or husband and the net income for 1921 was $5,000 or less, and $2,000 if married and living with wife or husband and the ne ncome was more than $5,000.

The last day to have Income Tax Re turns for calendar year in the hands of the United States Collector of Internal Revenue is Wednesday, March 15th, 1922. Why wait until the fast minute and be subject to penalty or indictment? Any individual, corpora-tion or partnership who fails to make such return shall be liable to penalty of not more than $1,000.00. Send in your return at once not liable for this penalty

If it be true that the good die young then we can explain the untimely demise of our New Year's resorations .-Asheville Times.

The dogs of war, it seems, are not to die, but only to diet.—Columbia Re-

The manufacturer who makes the Philadelphia Inquirer.

Demobilized Officer Who Found Peace Dull

by CYRIL McNEILE

IRWIN MYERS

"Murdered! Jimmy Granger man dered!" He almost cried in his weak-ness. "What did the swine want to murder him for?

"Because they wanted you alone," explained Hugh. "Private secretaries ask awkward questions."

After a while the millionaire recerred his composure, and with many breaks and pauses the slow, disjointed

"Lakington! That was the nam the man I met at the Carlton. And dined together, I remember, and th was after dinner, in my private sitting room, that Peterson put up his proposition to me. . . . It was a suggestion that he thought would appeal to me as a business man. He said what was it?-that he could produce a gigantic syndicalist strike in Englandrevolution, in fact; and that as one of the biggest shipowners—the biggest, in fact—outside this country, I should be able to capture a lot of the British carrying trade. He wanted two hundred and fifty thousand pounds to de it, paid one month after the result was obtained. . . . Said there were others

"On that valuation," interrupted the detective, thoughtfully, "it makes one million pounds sterling," and Drammond nodded. "Yes, Mr. Potts; and "I told him," said the millionaire, "that he was an infernal scoundrel, and that I'd have nothing whatever to do with such a villainous scheme. And then-almost the last thing I can remember-I saw Peterson look at Lakington. Then they both sprang on me, and I felt something prick my arm. And after that I can't remember anything clearly. Your face, sir"-he turned to Drummond-"comes to me out of a kind of dream; and yours, too," he added to Darrell. "But it was like a leng, dreadful nightmare, in which vague things, over which I had no power, kept happening, until I woke up last night in this gentleman's house. He bowed to Ted Jerningham, who grinned cheerfully.

"And mighty glad I was to hear you talking sense again, sir," he remarked. "Do you mean to say you have no recellection of how you got there?"

"None, sir; none," answered the millionaire. "It was just part of the dream.'

"It shows the strength of the drug those swipe used on you," said Drummond grimly. "You went there in an airplane, Mr. Potts.

"An airplane!" cried the other in amazement. "I don't remember it. I've got no recollection of it whatever. There's only one other thing that I can lay hold of, and that's all dim and muzzy. . . . Pearls. . . . A great rope of pearls.... I was to sign a paper; and I wouldn't.... I did once, and then there was a shot and the light went out, and the paper disappeared at him vaguely. "I was to promise them a million dollars when they had done what they said. . . . I remember that. . . . And the pearl necklace. . . . the duchess of . . ." He paused and shook his head wearlly.

"The duchess of Lampshire's?" prompted Hugh

"That's it," said the other. "The duchess of Lampshire's. It was saying that I wanted her pearls, I think, and would ask no questions as to how

The detective grunted.

"Wanted to incriminate you properly,! did they? Though it seems to me that it was a blamed risky game. There should have been enough money from the other three to run the show without worrying you, when they found you weren't for it."
"Walt," said the millionaire, "that reminds me. Before they assaulted me at the Carlton they told me the others wouldn't come in unless I did."

wouldn't come in unless I did."

For a while there was silence, broken at length by Hugh.

"Well, Mr. Potts, you've had a moldy time, and I'm very glad it's over. But the person you've got to thank for putting us fellows on your track is a girl. If it hadn't been for her I'm afraid you'd still be having night-mares."

"I would like to see her and thank her," said the millionaire quickly. "You shall," grinned Hugh, "Come to the wedding; it will be in a fort-night or thereabouts." "Wedding!" Mr. Pofts looked a little vague. "Yes! Mine and hers, Ghastly proposition, isn't it?" "The last straw," remarked Ted Jer-

Bull-Dog GREAT BARGAINS

New Spring Oxfords and Shoes

We have now on display all of our New Spring Oxfords in the very latest styles at the most reasonable prices. Before you buy or order your 0xfords be sure and look over our wonderful bargains.

We can save you a great deal of MONEY and TIME.

Ladies Black Satin Pumps in one or two straps, Baby Louis or Junior Louis heels, Special $4.95

Ladies Patent Leather Pumps in one or two straps, low rubber heel, Special $2.95 to $4.95

Ladies Dark Tan Pumps in one or two straps, low rubber heel, Special $2.95 to $4.95

Ladies Dark and Light Tan Brough Oxfords, low and medium rubber heel, Special $2.95 to $4.95

Ladies Black Lace Vici Kid Pumps

and Lace Oxfords, low rubber heels,

Special $2.25 to $3.95 Ladies White Pumps in one or two strap, low or Baby low heels. Special $1.45 to $3.45 Men's W. L. Douglas Oxfords, Dark Tan Brouge Oxfords, rubber heels, Special $5.95

Men's Dark Tan Blucher Oxfords with rubber heels, $3.95 to $'.95

Men's Dark Chocolate Oxfords, English and Brouge styles, rubber heels Special $3.95 to $4.95

Men's Tan or Black Scout Shoe, Special $2.25

Men's Tan Plow Shoes, Special $1.95

Childrens Patent Leather Pumps, two strap and one strap, Special $1.25 to $2.95

F. A. ROTH COMPANY

THE STORE THAT ALWAYS SELLS THE CHEAPEST

LOUISBURG,

NORTH CAROLINA

FXTENSION FOR GOOD CAUSE

Commissioner of Revenue Watts said the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Brew oday that the law permits him to rant extensions of time to taxpayers or filing income tax returns from March 15th in cases of sickness, abin his judgment good cause exists for such extension. The law requires insuch extension. The law requires in-terest at the rate of six per cent per annum from March 15th to the time of payment to be paid where extensions are granted. Extensions will be granted upon application where lawful cause is shown, but in all cases the interest required by law will be Where no extensions have been granted, taxpayers failing to make in-come tax returns and pay the taxes due on or before March 15th, without intent to evade the law, may voluntarily file a return and pay the tax due on or before May 15th, 1922, together with five per cent penalty, which pen-"It's at my bank at this moment, Mr. dollar and one per cent for each month or fraction of a month during which the tax remains unpaid from March 15 1922. These penalties will be collected in svery case.

Well It this escapes the waste basket will come again.

JAY-CAY-BEE.

TMPROVED FINANCIAL STANDING.

ed in every case.

All penalties may easily be avoided by taxpayers making their income tax eturns and paying the taxes due or before March 15, 1922, or by securing extensions, where lawful reasons exist for extensions, when only sim-tle interest will be collected in addi-tion to the tax, ntion is again called to the fact Attention is again called to the fact that the income taxes paid to sheriffs and county tax collectors during the fall of 1921 and the first part of this year are taxes levied on the incomes of taxpayers for the calendar year of 1920, and not for 1921.

Returns are required from all single persons and married persons not living with husband or wife whose not income is $1,000 or more, and from all married persons living together whose net incomes are $2,000 or more. Net income is the gross income less the deductions allowed by law, but personal exemptions are not included in these deductions. For this reason a very large number of persons are liable to make returns who will not pay taxes

SCHLOSS ITEMS.

As we have not seen anything from our community in a long time we will send in just a few lines to let you know we are not drowned yet.

The farmers are quite busy since the heavy rains preparing plant beds. We are glad to know that there is a wholesale house now at (Schloss Town.) It is a great beneat to the small merchants in the eastern part of the county.

Mr. Hurley Evans, of Ingleside, visited Schloss Sunday afternoon. Look cut Alert people. You had better hurry and come to Schloss.

Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Watkins and little daughter, Mildred, visited Youngs ville Sunday. The farmers are quite busy since er Sunday afternoon. It seems as if something is not just right around Schloss as some people we loose to Alert but gain from Ingle-Messrs. Hurley Evans, of Ingleside, Horton Burnette, Willie Ball and William Murray, of near Alert, were visitors at Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Brewer's

Sunday afternoon.

Some time in March we are planning to have a Fiddlers Convention and if you don't believe we can fiddle you come to Schloss and see. We can out fiddle any fiddlers you ever saw fiddle.

Mr. B. P. Harris and son, visited

Henderson Sunday afternoon.
Some of the people say they are not going to plant any tobacco this year as the bad weather has kept them from preparing their plant bed.

Well if this escapes the waste bas joined the marketing association have edness, the undersigned will on improved, their financial standing is made clear by a statement of the pres-idents of the Tobacco and Cotton Mar-Court House door in Louisburg, N teting Associations as follows Raleigh, N. C., Feb. 25, 1922.

The Associations desire to inform Bankers, Merchants and Member-Grow ers that there is no reason that any conflict of interests should come b tween the Associations and any on-

The member-grower can execute mortgage in good faith on his crop. In that event—the Associations can ssue all certificates and checks to oint order of member-grower and mortgagee,

We believe that mortgage or lien will be a better paper if maker is a tember of the Associations, as every other member will be interested in his delivering his crop to the Associa-

W. H. Austin, Prest. N. C. Cotton Growers Asst. G. A. Norwood, Prest. Tobacco Growers Cooperative Asst.

POÚSVILLE ITEMS.

The weather has opened up so ruess everybody is busy.

We are going to have the show nex time in Allens garage. Hope we will ave a large crowd. The boys at school practice playing ball a lot. I think they will have a fine team after while.

Messrs. Clinton Nelms, Henry Leon ard and Forest Harper, Miss Temple Burnette and Beatrice Aycock motor-ed over to Mr. Charlie Brewer's Sunday afternoon.

Misses Beulah and Mary Burnette, Rock, visited Mr. D. E. Aycock Sunday afternoon

Misses Annie Mae Gupton and Lena House, Messrs. Joe Griffin and Ed-win Davis motored over to Centerville to preaching Sunday afternoon. Meeting at Sandy Creek church ex-ery Sunday evening. Everybody is invited to attend. "Lonesome Tom."

NOTICE OF RESALE OF REAL ES-TATE

Whereas the property hereinafter described was offered for sale at the Court House door on the 16th day of January, 1922; and whereas the bidder at said tme and place has failed to comply with the terms of his bid; Now therefore, Under and by virtue of the power of sale contained in the of the power of sale contained in that certain deed of trust of Luther Whitaker and wife to E. H. Malone, Trustee, dated Sept. 24th, 1919, recorded in Book 224, page 392, Registry of Frank lin County, N. C., default having been made in the payment of the indebtedess thereby secured and demand for oreclosure having That tobacco growers who have Trustee by the holder of said indebt-

MONDAY, APRIL 3, 1922 at or about the hour of noon at ocer for sale at public auction to the highest bidder for cash the following described lot or parcel of land situate in Louisburg Township, Franklin County, State of North Carolina and described as follows: Situate on the Southwest corner of Church and College Streets in the Town of Louisburg N. C. and beginning at a stake on Church Street corner for Mrs. Mary Cabiness lot; thence in a Northerly direction along said Church Street 117 feet to a stake at the intersection of Church and College Streets; thence in a westerly direction along College Street 195 feet to the old Creekmore corner; thence along the old Creek-more line in a southerly direction to corner for the old Creekmore lot an line for the lot hereby conveyed; thence along line for the old Creekmore lot and lot hereby conveyed in a Westerly direction and parallel with College Street to a stake on the East side of Elm Street; thence in a Southerly direction along Elm Street to a stake 117 feet southerly from the point where Elm Street intersects with College Street, corner for lot hereby conveyed and Mrs. Mary Cabiness lot, thence in an easterly direction along thence in an easterly direction along Cabiness line and parallel with College Sreet to the point of beginning, containing a little more than half an acre and being the lot conveyed by Misses Sallie and Joe Jones to Mrs. Lizzle Macon by deed dated August 8th, 1901, and recorded in Book 124 at Fage 267, Registry of Franklin County, N. C. and by deed of W. H. Macon and wife to Luther Whitaker, dated September 24th, 1919, reference for Wonder whats the trouble with Mr. ed September 24th, 1919, reference to the Herbert Leonard? He has stopped which deeds and records is here wisiting down around Pousville so of-

E. H. MALONE, Prust

and Mrs. Ozmar, from Flat 2-10-4t