PUNKIN CENTER.

Well Mr. Editor:—I hope your grease is running slick. It has been time, but is running a little slicker now since the weather has turned warmer. I read Mr. J. A. Clifton's platform in the TIMES and think he hit the nail square on the head, and bunkin Center is with him. I want hit the nail square on the head, and Punkin Center is with him. I want him to represent us in the next legis lature provided for will promise to leave his harp at home. No man can legislate and play the harp too. By the way Mr. Editor did you ever hear him play? If not you have missed a treat. Dead hog eatin peas, is his favorite chune, and when he takes down his harp and seats his self in a cheer, and gits in a weavin way, he cheer, and gits in a weavin way, he can jis play this old chune from who lay de rail. He is right when he says my salary is so big that high taxes don't hurt me, but I'm sorry for the rest of the poor fellows. At the last meeting of the club, my salary was raised 100 per cent. My salary was formerly three cents a year but now I get six. The club now has two vaand Sheriff, and any one desiring to run for these high offices can send in their names to Vice-President Joseph C. Hoover. But remember gentlemen unless you are members of the club in good standing, you need not apply. Mr. Tanlac (alias Frank Justice) was druming around the other tice) was drumming around the other day for votes and asked me for my support. I asked him if he belonged to the club, he said he did. I then told him that he was as good as elected already. I made him promise not to hang me if elected Sheriff and to let my still alone. I told him if he hung me, I'd never vote for him again as long as I lived or even speak to him again, and he made the promise. He tried to make Spanish Monkey take a drink with me the other day, but Spanish said it was too near day, but Spanish said it was too near tire school house. Let me sa, to Mr Tanlac that he has a mount strong opponent in the person of President Zollie Wheeler. He came to see me the other day saying that he was in the ring for Sheriff and wanted my vote. I told him that it was against the laws of the club for any member to hold two offices at the same time. the laws of the club for any member to hold two offices at the same time, and that he would have to resign his present high office if he wanted to run for Shari. He said he would run any way.

Mr. Tanlac. Old Mr. Frog is getting mighty impatient cause that Tadpole won't turn to a frog. I told him he must have patience as it took a little time for a tadpole to turn to a frog. He said he was anxious for him to get to jumping as he wanted to see how far he could jump. Mrs. Frog says he is too mean to learn to jump or do any-afternoon.

P. S.—Now gentlemen don't get the county offices and the club offices mixed. A county office is a very small affair.
