Entered at the Post Office at Louisburg, N. C., as second class matter.

Richard Croker, the one time Tammany Boss, died at his home in Ireland the past week.

The primary s drawing near and as yet we have seen no pressure brought to bear on the Legislative candidates to make plain their stand on certain public questions.

Mr. A. P. Strickland, of near Hick-cry Rock, and a resident of Louisburg township, wishes us to call attention to the fact that he is not the Arthur Strickland that is running for County Commissioner, but is the man of the same name in Cypress Creek township.

It is being suggested that the County Commissioners let each of the County offices out to the lowest bidder on next Monday, requiring the successful bidder, of course, to give a satisfactory bond for the faithful performance of the duties of the office. The advocates of this plan say that even though it might not be legal it would result in a big saving for the County.

The County Commissioners are receiving justly deserved congratulations for their actions in ordering the collection of penalties on taxes discontinued and the return of those collected. We never have thought the law constitutional, and the best excuse we have ever seen for its existence is to delay the collection of taxes. There is a time set for the final settlement for the collection of taxes and everybody should be required to settle by that time or foreclose. The penalty is only a system of loaning money by the County at excessive interest.

Those citizens who are so eager to tear down the entire structure of our government in order to satisfy an unwholesome desire to save a few dollars in taxes forget the fact, when they are so urgent in their demands on candidates, that there is a large number of people in the county who are willing to pay a little extra tax to continue to go forward, and have no desire to jump an honest obligation.
 Although this class is saying little it is a power that the candidates can well take into consideration. Right will eventually prevail, even though it may be forced to the rear for awhile.

The merchants, and the people indirectly, of Franklin County should show their appreciations for the actions of the Board of Commissioners when on Monday they refused to lower the prohibitive license on peddlers to let in a class of people who ride through a community taking advantage of an uninformed public and dodging the just taxes on their business. They took the position that no man should be allowed to enter the County and take business, that the merchants, who pay taxes for the support of the government, are entitled to, without contributing a reasonable sum to the public treasury.

TREASURY SAVING CERTIFICATES

"More money was invested in the new offering of Treasury Savings Certificates in the Fifth Federal Reserve District in March than in either January or February, as a result of the nation-wide campaign on the part of the Post Office and Treasury Departments to protect the savings of the American people from unsafe investments," says postmaster R. H. Davis, of the Louisburg post office.

A letter to the postmaster from Howard T. Cree, Government director of savings in this district, states that the recent advance in the prices of Liberty Bonds is making government securities more popular and the decline in interest rates generally is making Treasury Savings Certificates particularly attractive. The demand for government securities has resulted in larger sales of these certificates than at any time since they were placed on the market. Treasury Savings Certificates to the amount of $566,219, major value, were purchased in this district in March, largely through the efforts of the postmasters.

The local postmaster expects greatly increased sales here since a number of letters have been distributed to the patrons of this office, making known to them the desirable features of Treasury Savings Certificates.

When these certificates yield 4 1-2 per cent interest, compounded semi-annually, or 25 per cent on purchase price, if held to maturity, five years from date of issue, it is not generally so desirable that they are guaranteed against depreciation, because they increase monthly in cash surrender value and are redeemable at owner's option before maturity, in which event they yield about 3 1-2 per cent interest, compounded semi-annually," says the postmaster.

HEALTH DEPARTMENT

Information Concerning The Health of the People of Franklin County, Worth Your Attention.

Dr. J. E. Malone, Health Officer.

We are having a successful campaign in cleaning up our town. The citizens are cleaning up their back yards and having everything hauled out. We are getting all of the horse stable manure hauled out on the land of farmers. We destroyed by fire all the "unsanitary" conditions on Town hill, also that on the hill behind the jail. We are getting ready to put on a campaign of vaccination against Typhoid Fever. This work will be carried on in every district in the county and the people will be vaccinated free of cost—the county paying $1-3 cents a head to our own Doctors. Places and dates will be published and printed on slip and sent all over the county telling the people where the Doctor will come to do the work. If we can have a vaccination against Typhoid Fever as we had against smallpox we will be very much gratified. The best and most successful piece of work we ever did in the county. Get ready and be ready to meet us to save you and yours from having Typhoid Fever. The town and county are both enjoying good health at present. Let us keep the good work going on.

MISSION STUDY

The Mission Study Circle of the Baptist Woman's Missionary Society met Monday afternoon with Mrs. J. S.
 Howell. The attendance was good and one new member, Mrs. Cranford joined the class.

The lesson from "A Wandering Jew in Brazil," was about the influence of the Bible, tracts, and other Christian literature in the evangelization of Brazil. It was ably taught by Miss Lizzie Stuart.

After the lesson the hostess served delightful chicken salad with mayonaise, pickle, wafers, followed by bonbons.

He's a Distance Champion

GUY CLARK, JR., 3 years old, of Watertown, Mass., is champion kiddie car racer—at least for distance. He disappeared from his home recently and was gone all day. At sundown he was found 12 miles from home and still pushing away on his kiddie car.

QUALITY KNITTED BATHING SUITS PREFERRED BY THOSE WHO KNOW

ACCORDING to the calendar, anticipation will soon be realization to those looking forward to the season of swimming and sea-bathing. Why not forestall the usual plea of regret, "I have no bathing suit," by preparing aforesaid.

It was remarked at the sea-coast winter resorts this season, that the plain high-quality knitted bathing suit was prime favorite. Of course there were many novelty creations which pass under the title of bathing suit, which are in reality beach costumes of the elaborate sort. If one is not a water fan, this sort of outfit is charmingly in accord with the picture, but when it comes to real sport, genuine healthy hearty playing the waves, or professional swimming, nothing gives the satisfaction of the knitted bathing suit.

It is, however, good economy to buy only the best. There are certain standard makes which guarantee fast color and enduring shapeliness. It is a waste of money to invest in any other.

Some of the new knitted suits are most attractively designed as verified in the accompanying picture. This model is to be had in very interesting color combinations, such as gray with navy, scarlet or orange border. It is of jersey knit and in every line shows
