TOBACCO WAREHOUSES CLOSE FOR THANKSGIVING

Manager G. C. Harris of the Tobacco Growers Warehouse in Louisburg announces that the market will be closed from Wednesday, November 29 to Monday, December 4, to observe Thanksgiving. Growers will bear this in mind and be governed accordingly.

MISS HALL HOSTESS

The Thursday Evening Book Club met at the home of Miss Ruth Hall on the 26th. The invited guests were Mrs. Tom Ruffin, Mrs. Weldon Egerton, Misses Musa Wilson, Sallie Manson Petty, Burdette Joyner and Marie Allen.

The Opera studied for the evening was 'The Marriage of Figaro,' the story of which was given by Miss Mildred Scott. Miss Jessie T. Harris read a very interesting paper on the life of the author, Mozart. A vocal selection from the Opera was given by Miss Sallie Manson Petty in her usual charming manner.

The 'Charge of the Uhlans' a duet was rendered by Misses Petty and Hall, which was enjoyed by all present.

After the programme was completed Miss Hall assisted by Miss Lynn Hall served a most delicious salad course followed by a sweet course.

G. M. BEAM RECORDER

The Board of County Commissioners met in adjourned meeting yesterday and established a Recorder's Court, with Messrs. G. M. Beam as Recorder, and Ben T. Holden, Prosecuting Attorney.

MR. EVANS SPEAKS TO GOOD CROWD

Mr. W. F. Evans delivered a powerful speech for Democracy in the Court House here Saturday afternoon, which was heard and enjoyed by quite a good number of Franklin county voters. He was introduced by Hon. W. M. Person, as also was Commissioner of Labor and Printing, who delivered a pleasing impromptu address preceding Mr. Evans.

His speech was a fine portrayal of the real benefits of Democracy and a severe arraignment of the republican administration, and also a strong plea for all voters to go out and vote.

Neighbors Were Astonished At Change In Her

"I had lost nearly all faith in medicines, but I am thankful a thousand times over that I ever believed in Tanlac strong enough to try it," recently said Mrs. Martha Baker, 508 East Sixth St., Gastonia, N. C.

"My daughter thinks I might not be here now if I had not used Tanlac, and no doubt she is right, for I was feeling pretty fast. The lightest kind of food hurt me and many times I could not retain anything I would eat. I was also fearfully nervous, couldn't sleep, and got up mornings completely worn out."

"After I got Tanlac I improved so rapidly that my neighbors were astonished and wanted to know what I was doing for myself. I am just like a new person now and I know at least a dozen people who have taken Tanlac and got well on account of what it did for me."

Tanlac is sold by all good druggists.
