Entered at the Post Office at Louisburg, N. C., as second class matter.

The fifteen million dollar road bill passed the Senate by a vote of 42 to 3.

Reports say President Harding faces a desperate fight on the Ship subsidy.
 Governor Morrison no doubt can sympathize with him.

"Farm tenancy is the curse of the South", a headline in a daily paper.
 That's true but it seems impossible to get the tenant to see it that way.

Don't "cuss out" too soon. You had better sow that plant bed. You will wish you had before the first of June, when the Association makes final settlement.

The people living on the Halifax road are entitled to kick on the condition of the road. The State Highway Commission has assumed the responsibility for putting it in shape and we hope they can do so at once.

The most wonderful thing we know of is the farmer who admits that he can't make a decent living for himself and family under the old pot luck selling system and then is not willing to help put over a better system.

Superintendent Geo. R. Pou, of the State prison brands as "fabrication out of the whole cloth" the reports coming from Thomasville and elsewhere that Dr. Peacock had assistance within and without the State prison in making his escape. But the question still remains with many "How can a criminal get away from the Penitentiary?"

Representative George H. Cooper has certainly touched the heart strings of the people in the Loupsburg Graded School District, in introducing the bill to break up the self perpetuation of the Board of Trustee. This bill should be passed by all means. There is no question but that it will represent the wishes of fully ninety per cent of the people in the district.

Mr. J. F. Tant, a member of the Co-ops informs us that he planted about the same amount of land to tobacco in 1921 and 1922. That in 1921 on the open market he got for his crop $421.00. That for his 1922 crop in the Co-ops he has already gotten $467.
 30, and has more payments due. He says he would not be out for $500.00.
 There will be many more like Mr. Tant before the final settlement is made.

MR. AND MRS. W. B. MURPHY DEAD

"Our Father who art the Mighty Maker and do'er of all good things" came and called from our midst on Dec. 26th, 1922 one of our neighbors, Mr. W. B. Murphy. He had been sick only a few days with influenza when pneumonia set in and death followed quickly.

He was fifty-four years of age, and a devoted and faithful member of Sandy Creek Baptist church, who was always willing to do whatsoever he thought his duty, ever anxious and ready to serve his Master. He was also a well known farmer and a great believer in education. Mr. Murphy attained considerable prominence through his honesty and kindness.
 Therefore the news of his death cast a sad gloom over the entire community. In his death we feel that we have lost a very dear friend and indeed all who knew him cannot fail to regret one who was so amiable and unselfish.

Yet only one hope can comfort us in these sad hours the hope that somewhere in the "Many Mansions" of our "Father's house" the one we loved so well and miss so much are there, waiting to meet and greet those whom he left behind.

The body was tenderly laid to rest in a concrete tomb in the family burying ground at the old Murphy place, on Thursday afternoon in the presence of a company of sorrowing friends and relatives.

Surviving the deceased are his two sons, Gray Bird and Ollie Jack Murphy, four brothers Mr. J. G. Murphy, A. D. Murphy, D. N. Murphy and J.
 T. Murphy, three sisters Mrs. L. L.
 Gupton, Mrs. D. E. Aycocke and Mrs.
 W. S. Brewer.

On Wednesday morning, Jan. 3rd, 1923 following the death of Mr. W.

FOR THE CHILDREN

B. Murphy, God saw fit to take from this world the wife and mother of the home, Mrs. Lucy A. Murphy.
 This made home more sad and lonely, just why they were both snatched away so suddenly we cannot understand. But the ways of God are always best and all we can do is bow in humble submission to the Divine will, assured that these chastenings of sickness and death are not sent in anger but are proofs of a loving Father's care. "His paths are in the sea and His footsteps are in the deep waters." He causeth all things to work together for good to those who put their trust in Him.

Mrs. Murphy was the daughter of late deceased Weldon Stallings and Harriet Stallings. In her youth she professed faith in Christ and joined Red Bud church. Later she joined White Level Baptist church of which she was a loyal and faithful member and did her duty as an humble Christian until her death. She was a loving wife, a kind mother, and a good neighbor always willing to lend a helping hand to all especially to the sick.
 She is gone but not forgotten.

She leaves to mourn their loss two children, G. B. Murphy and O. J.
 Murphy and three brothers, Mr. J. J.
 Stallings of Richmond, Mr. Henry Stallings of Franklinton and Mr. John Stallings of Henderson, besides a number of friends and relatives. The remains were taken to the burying ground and laid to rest beside her husband who had preceded her to the grave only eight days.

We tender our sincere sympathy to the bereaved ones in this sad hour of sorrow, trusting that the Heavenly Father will give comfort where com-for

MRS. J. A. NELMS DEAD

On Jan. 25, 1923 at 6 o'clock in the evening the death angel visited the home of Mr. T. N. Nelms and took from them their loving mother, Mary Eleanor Nelms, widow of the late J. A. Nelms, after a short illness of flu and pneumonia.

She was born June 24, 1853, and died Jan. 25, 1923.

She was a faithful Christian until death. She was laid to rest in the family cemetery Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. The funeral services being conducted by Rev. N. F. Britt.

Hosts of friends and relatives assembled together to pay their last tribute.

She leaves to mourn their loss five children, Mrs. W. E. Rowe, near Loupsburg, Mrs. W. W. Wynne, of Bobbitt, Mr. P. N. Nelms and J. E.
 Nelms near Loupsburg, Mrs. J. M.
 Pleasants of Tarboro.

One sister, Mrs. W. H. Wortham, of Durham, one brother, Mr. W. H.
 Ferdue of Loupsburg.

Funeral services were Messrs. George Carrol, G. W. Murphy, H. J. Hayes, W. L. Bailey, H. J. Stainback, T. V.
 Moore. The floral tribute were very beautiful. She was a kind and faithful mother and neighbor and was loved by all knew her.

MRS. CELESTA WHELESS DEAD

On January 24, 1923 God saw fit to take from this earth a true and noble woman, Mrs. Celesta Wheless.

She had been in feeble health for sometime, she was taken with pneumonia and at the ripe age of 83, death was not a surprise, yet it was a shock to her many friends and relatives, but what a sweet and consoling thought to know that although she is gone her kind and gentle influence will live for years to come in the heart and lives of those who knew her best. All was done for her relief that loving hands could do, and only gave her up when she passed into the beautiful city of God.

She was possessed of a disposition and character that only a few have, and nowhere was this so beautifully shown as in her home.

She was a devoted member of Maple Springs Baptist church and was faithful to her Christian duties as long as she was able. The great pride of her life was to be true to her family, her church and her God.

There was a look of infinite peace on her calm features as she slept her long sleep. She leaves four sons, J.
 C. Wheless, W. A. Wheless, of Spring Hope, J. W. Wheless, A. M. Wheless, two daughters, Miss Mattie Wheless and Mrs. J. B. Jones of Scotland Neck, and one sister, Mrs. Janet Wilder, a number of grandchildren and great-grandchildren all of whom have the tenderest sympathy of the entire community. The funeral service was held at the home Friday at noon, conducted by her pastor, Rev. Harrell.

During the services a choir beautifully sang several selections. Tenderly the pallbearers took up the casket and bore it from the house for its last resting place by the side of her husband in the family burying ground.

The mound of earth which covered the casket was completely hidden by the great masses of flowers sent by loving friends and relatives which was a token of love to one who will be greatly missed in her home and neighborhood.

SANDY CREEK ITEMS

Guess everybody thinks that the people are dead around Sandy Creek, but just to prove we all are still alive, I will send in a few items.

On Saturday night Miss Corelle Collins gave a social. There were just a few present. Misses Mary and Florence Spain, and Mr. Herbert Leonard, Mr. and Mrs. Ve Osburn and Mr. and Mrs. Caleb Allen, Mr. Ellis Jones, and Rodger Williams. They all report a nice time and hoped Miss Allen may have another one soon.

I will call again soon. B. K. B.

CAUSE AND EFFECT

Serving You the Way
 You Want to Be Served

This Bank does not measure its service in terms of profit—and profit alone.

Profit is secondary when we can, through careful, individual service, help a patron to greater success.

The secret of our growth lies in the fact that we have not tried to please our customers. There is no chill formality here, but friendliness, courtesy and an obliging spirit.

We do not believe in red tape. However, we do believe, in taking a warm, friendly interest in our customers' affairs and trying in every possible way to serve them in the way they want to be served.

Will you let us serve YOU?
