BE STILL
Life today is a wild mad rush. This busy hustling age is so set on doing things, that we scarcely have time to eat or sleep, much less rest or think. Consequently many are old before their time, grow weary of the strife, and occasionally put an end to it all. And slow suicide accomplishes the same end as razors, pistols and poison. But we have no more right to destroy life gradually than we have to destroy it instantly.
And the restlessness of the day counts against us spiritually as well as physically. Of course, He is present everywhere, but we see Him more plainly and feel Him more sensibly in the quiet of the closet than in the stir of the street. Therefore for body's sake, for mind's sake, and for the soul's sake, sit down sometime and think whence you came, what you are, and whither you are bound. "Be still and know that I am God."—Ps. 46:10.
—Daniel J. Currie.

CARD OF THANKS
I wish to extend my heartfelt thanks and appreciations to all those who rendered so many kindnesses and expressions of sympathy in the recent illness and death of my husband. They will be long and tenderly remembered.
MRS. S. N. NELMS.

JUNIOR STUNT NIGHT AT LOUISBURG COLLEGE
The jolly Juniors realize that "A little nonsense now and then is relished by the best of men." Their evening of fun and frolic in the college auditorium January twenty-fourth was considered a decided hit.
The mock faculty gave the various members of the faculty a fine opportunity to see themselves as they are seen by the students. The boys' room in a Wake Forest dormitory in which several boys were studying (?) was the crowning event of the evening. The students and their friends enjoyed the social hour which followed the evening's entertainment.

In the Spring the gardener's fancy Often turns to thoughts of woe,
When the pesky little cutworms Chew his plants off down below;
But he makes his poisoned mixture Placing it between the rows,
Then the cutworms go and eat it And turn up their little toes.
—C. S. Brimley.

Keep Your Sink Drains Clear

Here is the best insurance against clogged drains and stopped-up pipes.

If the sink drain becomes clogged or runs too slowly, sift a little Red Seal Lye down the pipe. The lye will immediately combine with the grease in the pipes. Then when water is added you will hear the cheerful "gurgle" in the trap and know that the drain is free and the pipes clean and sanitary.
Pure lye is the strongest and most effective disinfectant in the world. Red Seal Lye far excels cheap brands. Red Seal Lye is pure, unadulterated and high tested.
Red Seal Lye is also a wonderful water softener. Hard water means a great waste of soap and labor. Add one-half a teaspoonful of Red Seal Lye to every bucket of washing water and notice the snowy whiteness of your garments and how much less soap is used.
Save your meat fats and make your own soap with Red Seal Lye. One can of Red Seal Lye will make 20 cakes of pure soap. Easy directions are in the can.
Be sure and ask your dealer for the old reliable granulated Red Seal Lye and take no substitute. Send us a postal for the Red Seal Booklet which describes all the uses of this famous product. Write today.

DOES YOUR BACK ACHE?
It's usually a sign of sick kidneys, especially if the kidney action is disordered, passages scanty or too frequent. Don't wait for more serious troubles. Begin using Doan's Kidney Pills. Read this Louisburg testimony.
H. P. Cranford, garage foreman, Church St., says: "Last winter I had a terrible time with my kidneys. For long spells my kidneys failed to act at all and when I was able to pass the secretions they were highly colored and burned in passage. My back nearly killed me with pain and I couldn't turn in bed without a knife-like pain stabbing through my kidneys. It was almost impossible to bend and I certainly was in misery. Mornings my back was as sore as a boil and so stiff I couldn't stoop to put on my shoes. I doctored, but didn't get satisfactory results. Doan's Kidney Pills gave me more benefit than any medicine I had taken. I haven't had a spell with my kidneys since."
