CEDAR ROCK HIGH SCHOOL

News Of Interest To Teachers, Pupils and The Public Generally

By School Correspondent

The Seniors have begun work on their class play "The Adventures of Grandpa" which they expect to render soon. The date will be announced later.

Members of Woodrow Wilson Literary society gave us a very interesting debate last Thursday afternoon on the query: Resolved, That Capital punishment should be abolished in N. C. The decision was rendered in favor of the affirmative.

Mr. Phillip Inscoc spent last week-end with friends in Wake Forest and Raleigh.

Our school attendance has been somewhat diminished this week on account of the bad weather and roads but we hope that these conditions will soon improve.

Quite a number of the Cedar Rock fans attended the basket ball game between Carolina and Wake Forest at Wake Forest Monday night. The Carolina quint, though outplayed during a great part of the game, won the game in the last minute by a score of 25 to 23.

Mr. Staley Strickland of Hickory Rock and Miss Lucy Baker of Louisburg were united in wedlock Saturday night, Feb. 3rd. We wish them a long and happy married life.

The faculty play "A Royal Cinch" will be given in connection with a box party at Cedar Rock high school at an early date, probably Thursday night Feb. 22. Definite announcement will be made next week.

Of the three basket ball games played last week the local team took two of them. The first played here Monday against Epsom, was won by the locals by a score of 17 to 14. The second played at Epsom Tuesday was won by the fast Epsom team by a score of 14 to 8. The third and the most thrilling of all was played against the strong team of Youngsville National Guard, Saturday night and was won by the Cedar Rock team 33 to 29.

The game was fast and cleanly played throughout, and the game belonged to anybody until the final whistle. Owing to the fact that it was the first game of the local boys on the floor they were somewhat confused at first and the first half ended 10 to 6 for the Army team. But with the beginning of the second half they found their stride and the half ended with the score 28 to 28. In the extra five minutes both teams scored one foul and Dickens left forward for Cedar Rock got away with two lead goals which untied the score.

The army team excelled in passing and floor work but the close guarding by the whole Cedar Rock team rendered their shooting inaccurate.

For Cedar Rock Bledsoe at guard played a fine game holding his man scoreless and registering two field goals himself. At forward both Harris and Dickens showed up well. Harris making 18 points from the floor and Dickens 8.

For Youngsville Winston at center played a fine floor game and made 15 of his teams points. Alford left forward for the army team made four goals from the floor.

SALT—by Sarah Gilliam
Sodium chloride or common salt is very widely distributed in nature. The salt of the market is obtained by evaporating or freezing water taken from the ocean, or by mining in beds of rock salt. Most frequently a strong brine is pumped from deep wells sunk into the salt deposits. It is an essential ingredient of food for most animals and supplies the chief source of soda and chloride. About 3 per cent by weight of the ocean is made up of it and vast beds of salt occurs in strata.

Extensive deposits of salt are found widely distributed in all the continents. In the United States the most important localities for salt are New York, Michigan, Ohio and Kansas. United States exceeds every other country in the world in the production of salt. At present the annual output is about 3,150,700 tons. It represents a value of $8,150,000. Much of it is exported to Canada, Mexico, Central America and Hawaiian Islands.

Salt is used in the preparation of nearly all compounds containing either sodium or chlorine. These include many substances of the highest importance to civilization such as soap, glass, hydrochloric acid, soda and bleaching powder. Pure salt does not absorb moisture; ordinary salt becomes moist when exposed to air is not due to the property of the salt but to impurities occurring in it. Besides serving as a preserver and seasoner of food, salt is used as a general mordant for glazing coarse pottery, in giving hardness to soaps, for medicines and giving clearness to glass.

Shoe Repairing That Wears Longer

All of the repairs on Shoes at our shop is done in a most intelligent and workmanlike manner. The stitches are removed from the old shoes by hand and the new work sewed in the original holes. This of course necessitates more labor, and gives greater life to your shoes by not having the leather cut to pieces by new holes every time they are repaired. However our prices are not any higher on this class of good work than is prevailing on cheaper workmanship.

Let us repair your shoes.
