Tutt's Pills

One difference between hugging and some doctors is that hugging is musical.

The doctor says you should be careful of your stomach and double broiling.

Let people say you are something and they have to say you are.

All the world knows you are the world's best.

The energy spent in raising four kids would build a forty-story building.

Only a few more months and you will be a young man.

Now your resolutions and plans are made over.

Pay as you go or stop today.

The world is a stage. Unstudied lines are always true.

If people were so bad as some people think they would be long dead.

Saying the world was making any sense usually means that you are not.

Life Lines

BY H.M.C.

LET'S stand upon the corner of most any town at all, and watch the march of people going by. Let's view the little youngsters and the grown-ups, short and tall—just give them all the overlooking eye.

There's Mrs. Anybody with a coat that's made of mink; her husband's by her side in brand new gloves. No doubt the Mrs. wonders what the neighbors all will think, for envy is a thing a woman loves.

And little Willie Jones is out and dressed up epic and span. The shoes he wears are patterned after dad. He hopes that folk who see him will remark that he's a man. You know how things like that make youngsters glad.

And sister Susie's on parade in fancy dress of blue. She has some brilliant ribbons in her hair. She struts around where folks may see—she has naught else to do. She simply feels the spirit in the air.

What spirit? you are asking. Well, it comes but once a year. The aftermath of rushing Yuletide trade. When fancy frock and new things on the sidewalks will appear as folks take Christmas presents on parade.
