ANNOUNCES

Spring Opening

Commences Friday, March 30th, 1923

We beg to announce to the public that our buyers have recently returned from the Northern Markets, where they were fortunate enough, in spite of unheard of advances of all classes of merchandise, to make many remarkable purchases of the newest reasonable merchandise and we are now passing same on to you. Our advice to you is to buy now for we are offering many articles for less than we can replace same. Look over prices carefully and don't fail to make a visit during opening.
