CASTALA NEWS

Mr. G. C. Buck, who has been principal three years, hung the doors wide Monday, and under better auspices the High School opening was equal to any former years. Mr. W. E. Whisman, of Woodland, is the efficient assistant principal, and his accomplished wife will have charge of music department. These are the young women who are teaching the grades: Miss Margaret Iverly, Enfield; Miss Susie Turner, Miss Eugenia Boone, Castala; Miss Arlie Jones, Wilkesboro; Mrs. Carrie McCauley, Castala; Miss Jewell Smith, Siler City; Miss Fain Forbes, Fountain.

The teachers are comfortably domiciled in the home of Mr. Joe Batchelor near the school building. Mr. Rosser Taylor and Mrs. Carrie McCauley report an instructive and profitable session of the summer school at the State College for Women, where Mr. Taylor was one of the teachers.

Miss Irene Taylor, one of Louisburg's beauties, was at the formal opening of school Saturday and mingling with old home friends.

Mrs. Kate Wilder Farmer, of Spring Hope, and Mrs. Ruby Bartholomew Perkins, of Littleton, were great assets to the song service during the revival some days past. Their splendid trained voices were charming and inspiring.

Mann Thomas, one of our leading colored farmers, lost a barn full of tobacco Friday, and Saturday Mr. Nat Finch had one burned.

The fields are whitening with the fleecy staple and soon the picking will be in full swing, but because of unfavorable weather conditions late cotton has deteriorated and the yield will be below the once looked for harvest.

Miss Claudine Sykes, living over the line, who was a faculty member here, but now of Cedar Rock, was among those who were at the opening Saturday. Cedar Rock is fortunate in having this splendid instructor in their school.

Rev. Mr. Everett has been called to the pastorate of the Baptist church here and at Red Bud, across the line in Franklin, and his ministerial duties will begin at once. He opened the school Saturday with an invocation and talk.

We have a splendid Sunday school with a good attendance most every Sunday. The total enrollment is 172 members. There are 10 organized classes with a sufficient number of officers for each class. It makes us feel good to see so many come out every Sunday especially the older people. Last Sunday the classes decided to contribute something to defray expenses and send our Superintendent M. T. Lamm as delegate to the State Superintendent's Conference held at Dunn this week. This was a surprise for him and he is anticipating a delightful trip through the country.

Miss Hinda Alford, of Spring Hope visited Miss Pattie Lamm several days last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Medley and two children, Mr. and Mrs. Linwood Edwards of Rocky Mount spent the week end with parents here.

Miss Ruth Alford of Bunn, Miss Ova Alford of Pilot, spent Saturday night and Sunday with Miss Pattie Lamm.

Miss Bert Gay, who is teaching at Peares, spent last week-end at home.

We are very sorry to know Mrs. Alice Gay has been sick for some time. We hope her speedy recovery.

Miss Pearl Hopkins, one of the high school teachers at Justice, spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. M. T. Lamm.

Mr. H. R. Moseley was a visitor in the community last Wednesday night. Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Sykes spent Sunday with their daughter, Mrs. Wilson Gay.
