TAR DROPS

Don't forget to vote Wednesday. The cold wave Tuesday reminded one of winter.

Cotton sold in Louisburg yesterday for 29 1-4 cents a pound.

Trustees for Louisburg Graded School will be elected Wednesday.

Its a fine little girl at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Cheatham Alston.

Quite a big lot of cotton and tobacco has been brought to market the past week.

The Life of Christ a moving picture was shown in the Courthouse here Wednesday.

Vote for the one you want to have charge of the education of your children Wednesday.

The many friends of Mr. D. G. Pearce will be glad to learn that he is improving nicely.

Mr. W. B. Joyner, who has been right ill at Rex hospital, Raleigh, has returned home much improved.

The many friends and relatives of Mrs. B. W. Ballard of Franklinton, will be glad to learn that she is steadily recuperating at Rex Hospital, after a long illness, necessitating operation.

Clerk of Court J. J. Young requests us to state that all persons who are liable to do so should file their accounts with him at once. This is necessary to get the accounts straight and to save further trouble and expense.

Supt. Mills informs us that there are a number of children in the district who are not attending the Louisburg Graded School, and that no doubt the authorities will start something unless the children enter pretty quick.

A supposedly mad dog in the College Chapel Tuesday created quite a bit of excitement. So much so that one of the girls became frightened and jumped out of a window breaking her arm in the fall. It developed that the dog was not mad.

As a result of a misunderstanding Robert Perry, colored, struck his wife, Luis Perry, a severe blow over the head Tuesday in the Service Shop where Luis was employed as a laundress. The cause of the trouble has not developed. Robert was apprehended and placed under a $100 bond.
