TAR DROPS

—Look out for Christmas. It will soon be here.

—The weather moderated quite a bit Wednesday.

—Cotton sold for 32 cents a pound in Louisburg yesterday.

—And gasoline has dropped to 20 cents a gallon in Louisburg.

—Great preparations for cold weather has been made the past week.

—Quite a good number attended Armistice day in Louisburg Monday.

—Miss Marguerite Harris has taken a position with the Farmers and Merchants Bank.

—Mr. B. W. Ballard, of Franklinton is the guest of Dr. and Mrs. R. F. Yarborough this week.

—His many friends were glad to see Mr. D. G. Pearce on our streets Monday looking so well.

—Mr. W. J. Wood, an old Confederate veteran died at the county home on Tuesday morning.

—It will be delightful news to many of our readers to know that Mrs. B. W. Ballard is improving satisfactorily.

—Only small crowds have been in attendance upon Court here this week. No important cases have been up for hearing.

—Quite a number of people from Louisburg attended the funeral services of Mrs. S. C. Vann in Franklinton Sunday.

—Mr. Burt Strickland has taken Maj. J. B. Thomas' place as buyer on the local tobacco market, during the illness of Maj. Thomas.

—The family of Mr. J. S. Howell wishes us to state that the information to the effect that Mr. Howell was trying to catch the running board of Mr. Brown's car when he was struck breaking his leg, given us last week by some of the workmen on the building, was a mistake and that to the contrary Mr. Howell was trying to escape from the car. The TIMES man not being an eye witness had to rely on the best information he could get, and as Mr. Howell was in Raleigh he could not be consulted about the circumstances.

BE RID OF THAT ACHE
If you are a sufferer with lame back, backache, dizziness, nervousness and kidney disorders, why don't you try the remedy that your own neighbors recommend? Ask your neighbor?
Mrs. D. C. High, Nash St., Louisburg, says: "I was nearly down with my back and at times I could hardly get around my back pained so. I read about the good Doan's Kidney Pills were doing for others, so I procured a supply at Scoggin's Drug Store. About six boxes of Doan's cured me and my back has never felt lame since. I can recommend Doan's highly."
The above statement was given June 24, 1918, and on Dec. 17, 1921, Mrs. High added: "Whenever I have the least sign of kidney disorder I resort to Doan's Kidney Pills and always with the same benefit. I gladly confirm my former statement."
Price 60c. at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. High had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.
