TAR DROPS

Monday is first Monday. Saturday is December 1st. It's a fine little girl at the home of Mr. and Mrs. V. C. Williams. The Boards of County Commissioners and Education meet Monday. Supt. O. C. Hill is preparing to rebuild the electric light lines in town. Are you ready for Christmas? If not you had better begin to arrange for it. Born to Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Egerton, on Monday a daughter, Elizabeth Davis. His many friends were glad to see Maj. J. B. Thomas on the streets the past week. Quite a number of our people visited Raleigh, Durham and other places Thanksgiving. Business generally was suspended in Lousburg yesterday in observance of Thanksgiving. The Telephone Company is at work on quite a big improvement for the Lousburg exchange. Cotton sold for 35 1-4 cents a pound in Lousburg Wednesday. Yesterday being Thanksgiving there was no market. Dr. and Mrs. R. F. Yarborough and family spent Thanksgiving with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Ballard at Franklinton. Mr. W. H. Macon wishes us to extend his thanks and appreciations to all those who so willingly assisted him when his home was a fire recently. Mr. V. C. Williams brought a negro named Perry to town Tuesday evening for medical attention. The negro, who was driving a truck loaded with bagging and ties, had had a wreck and was caught under the truck as it turned over. Mr. Williams and others rescued him.

Y. W. A. MEETING

The Young Woman's Auxiliary of the Lousburg Baptist church met with Miss Virginia Perry, Tuesday evening, November 26th. The roll having been called, minutes of the previous meeting read and approved, the following program was rendered: Hymn—"Help Somebody Today." Prayer—by Mrs. Newell. Devotional, Scripture lesson, Psalm 100—by Mrs. Newell. Prayer—by Miss Strickland. Lesson study subject being "Orphans and Orphanages" on which subject the following readings were given: 1. "Brief History of Thomasville Orphanage"—by Mrs. J. O. Newell. 2. "One Days Wage or Income for the State Orphan Children"—by Virginia Perry. 3. "Glimpse of Orphanage Work"—by Miss Mollie Strickland. We then received a thank offering which is to be used for the benefit of the fatherless and motherless of our State, after which we were dismissed by a special prayer of thanks by our leader, Mrs. J. O. Newell. After the adjournment a delicious fruit course was served. The following members were present: Mesdames J. O. Newell, H. A. Kearney, F. B. Leonard, Misses Virginia Perry, Nena Cyrus, Nellie Cyrus, Sallie Fort Taylor. New member Miss Mollie Strickland and visitors Mesdames J. W. Perry and A. B. Allen.

DOWN IN MOONSHINE VALLEY I came in from a blockade still Down in moonshine valley, Dodged the prohibition bill And hid in bootleg alley. But most every night I ride In some bootleggers flivver No prison terms or gold chloride Can kill my taste no never. They fever me with boxing gloves Pistols, swords and sabers, This is why a drunkard loves To slay his friends and neighbors. I try to trace my family tree But find the records vary, So brandy is no kin to me From whence spring Tom and Jerry. I gently flow by Schlosses farm If no one pursues me My odor fills the woods with balm While some brewer brews me.

Sometimes the Sheriff with his band Comes when not expected He upsets my brewing stand But I am well protected. Regardless of the bone-dry bill I'm always stewed or stewing For stillers still and swillers swill While Volstead is persuing. Revenues may come and go Up branches, creeks or rivers, Yet through some still-worm it will flow On and on forever. —VILLAGE BLACKSMITH.

This is the time of the year to remember that nothing can take the place of fresh air and good food. Think health, talk health, live health. Col. and Mrs. W. T. Wilder, of St. Paul, Minn., are visiting his sister, Mrs. W. H. Allen.

TO TOBACCO GROWERS The Union Warehouse is closed to observe Thanksgiving. It will be open again on Monday morning December 3rd, ready to sell your tobacco for the highest dollar. Hoping that each of you had a most enjoyable Thanksgiving, we hope to remain Your friends, D. T. CURRIN & CO.
