TAR DROPS

—Christmas is only 18 days off.

—Cotton sold for 34 1-2 cents in Louisburg yesterday.

—The Colored Presbyterian church has put in some new windows.

—J. S. Howell has placed his large gasoline tank at his new filling station.

—Little children had better be good if they want old Santa to remember them.

—Mr. B. F. Willie has been returned to the Louisburg Exchange as Manager for the Home Telephone and Telegraph Co., according to information given the TIMES this week.

Don't fail to go to W. B. COOKE'S to do your Christmas trading. He has lots of new goods. Three lines Drummers Samples just received. 12-7-1t

BIG HOGS

The killing of the following big hogs during the past week has been reported to the FRANKLIN TIMES:

J. J. Lancaster, near Mapleville, four weighing 272, 306, 314, 320.

T. M. Pearce, of Seven Paths, two weighing 320, 364.

W. W. Lester, of Seven Paths, two weighing 331, 356.

Miles Strickland, of Seven Paths, two weighing 294, 277.

LAUREL ITEMS

Misses Mildred Stewart and Lucile Lawrence, students of Vance County Farm Life School, Middleburg, spent the Thanksgiving holidays with Miss Mary Egerton, who is also a student of the same school.

A community meeting was held at Gold-Sand school building on Tuesday evening of last week. More than one hundred people were present. An interesting program was given, which everyone seemed to enjoy.

The following were callers at the home of Miss Mary Egerton during Thanksgiving holidays: Mr. Thomas Connell, Warrenton; Mr. Alex Wilson, Ingleside; Mr. Hugh Jones, Louisburg; Mr. William Stallings, Cedar Rock; and Mr. Arch Wilson, Mapleville.

Mr. B. M. Crawford, principal of Gold-Sand high school spent Sunday at Wood.

Rev. C. B. Howard filled his regular appointment at Mt. Zion Sunday morning.

RE-SALE OF VALUABLE LAND

Whereas the lands hereinafter described were offered for sale by the undersigned commissioners on Monday, June 25, 1923, under an order of Court in that Special Proceeding entitled "Mary Jane Foster et als vs M. T. Hawkins", and whereas said sale was never confirmed and a decree of Court has been entered ordering a re-sale of said lands, the undersigned commissioners will on MONDAY, DECEMBER 24, 1923, at or about the hour of Noon at the Courthouse door in Louisburg, Franklin County, N. C. offer for sale to the highest bidder that certain tract or parcel of land situate in Hayesville township, Franklin County, State of North Carolina, described as follows: Bounded on the North by the lands of the estate of J. A. Hawkins, on the East and South by the lands of Matthew T. Hawkins and on the West by the lands of the estate of J. A. Hawkins and W. O. Mitchell, containing 97 acres more or less, and being the tract of land upon which Thomas H. Hawkins resided at the time of his death.

Terms of Sale—One-third cash; balance payable in two equal annual installments, payable in one and two years, respectively, bearing interest at six per cent per annum from date of deed until paid and secured by mortgage or deed of trust on above described lands.

This 17th day of November, 1923.

W. H. YARBOROUGH,
E. H. MALONE,
Commissioners.

In preparing a fertilizer mixture for use under tobacco, one farmer of Lee County says that a visit to the county agent's office saved him $47.50. His tobacco was exhibited at the Sandhill Fair.

Tom Tarheel says: The farmer who does not study his business is like the prehistoric animal which could not adapt himself to changing conditions and life passed him by. Standing still is stagnation.
