Forester H. M. Curran reports a new industry for the mountain section. A farmer of Cherokee cracks black walnuts and sells the meats. From 6 to 10 pounds of salable meats are secured from each bushel of walnuts and certain dealers are eager for the product.

Farmers of Alamance County saved more than $2600 over the retail price of explosives by cooperating in the ordering of a carload of Sodamol through the Agricultural Extension Service. They will use this material in blowing stumps, reports County Agent W. K. Scott.

Mr. L. G. Turnage, of near Seven Paths, was displaying a cabbage in Louisburg the past week raised by himself that weighed 10 1-4 pounds and measured 12 inches across the head. It was the largest home grown cabbage seen on the local market this year.

BILLY SUNDAY

The Charlotte Observer

SIX WEEKS FOR $1

Every sermon delivered by the world's greatest evangelist during the six weeks' revival campaign he will open in Charlotte, December 30th, will be printed in full in the issue following its delivery.

Billy Sunday's thrilling phraseology, his striking gestures and platform antics, and the manner in which his sermons are received by the thousands who will jam the specially constructed tabernacle, will be duly recorded by an Observer staff reporter.

The fact that The Observer is a morning paper will enable it to give a more complete report of the services than any other Charlotte newspaper.

In addition to the complete Billy Sunday reports, The Observer will carry every piece of news developing in North and South Carolina, the local news handled by a large corps of reporters, and the world news gleaned from a complete Associated Press service. Features, copies, special articles of general interest and an editorial page second to none in the South, make up a paper that is more than desirable.

SPECIAL RATE OF ONE DOLLAR TO NEW SUBSCRIBERS FOR THE SIX WEEKS IF SENT IN BEFORE DECEMBER 20.
