

ACT QUICKLY

Do the right thing at the right time.

Act quickly in time of danger. In time of kidney danger, Doan's Kidney Pills are most effective. Plenty of Louisburg evidence of their worth. Ask your neighbor! Mrs. F. L. Herman, Church St., Louisburg, gave the following statement on June 24, 1918: "My kidneys bothered me a lot and acted too frequently. I heard a great deal about Doan's Kidney Pills, so I prepared some at the Aycock Drug Co. Doan's certainly reached the spot and cured me of all the trouble."

On Dec. 19, 1921, Mrs. Herman said: "Doan's Kidney Pills cured me of a spell of kidney trouble and I haven't been bothered since. It is indeed a pleasure to confirm my former statement."

Price 60c. at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Herman had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

COOLIDGE IN PROCLAMATION PAYS TRIBUTE TO WILSON.

Washington.—President Coolidge's proclamation on the death of Woodrow Wilson follows:
By the President of the United States of America

To the people of the United States: The death of Woodrow Wilson, President of the United States from March 4, 1913, to October 3, 1919, which occurred at 11:15 a. m. on the day at his home in Washington, D. C., of a most distinguished citizen, and is an even which causes universal and genuine sorrow. To many of us it brings the sense of a profound personal bereavement.

His early profession as a lawyer was abandoned to enter academic life. In this chosen field he attained the highest ranks as an educator, and has left his impress upon the intellectual thought of the country. From the presidency of Princeton university, he was called by his fellow citizens to be the chief executive of the state of New Jersey. The duties of this high office he so conducted as to win the confidence of the people of the United States, who twice elected him to be chief magistrate of the republic. As President of the United States he was moved by an earnest desire to promote the best interests of the country as he conceived them. His acts were prompted by high motives and his sincerity of purpose cannot be questioned. He led the nation through terrific struggle of the world war with a forty idealism which never failed him. He gave utterance to the aspiration of humanity with an eloquence which held the attention of all the earth and made America a new and enlarged influence in the destiny of mankind.

In testimony of the respect in which his memory is held by the government and people of the United States, I do hereby direct that the flags of the White House and of the several departmental buildings be displayed at half staff for a period of 30 days, and that suitable military and naval honors under orders of the secretary of the navy may be rendered on the day of the funeral.

Done at the city of Washington this third day of February, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and twenty-four, and of the independence of the United States of America the one hundred and forty-eighth.
CALVIN COOLIDGE.

By the President,
CHARLES EVANS HUGHES,
Secretary of State.

Mr. Wilson Born at Staunton, Virginia. Staunton, Va.—On the outer wall of the manse of the Presbyterian church of Staunton, Virginia, is a brass plate on which is this inscription, "Woodrow Wilson was born in this house." His father was pastor of the Presbyterian church there when Woodrow was born. The church in which he was baptized still stands. It is in the square occupied by Mary Baldwin college. All the buildings in the square are colonial but this one, which is gothic. It is owned by the college and used as a hall, the spot where his baptism took place being marked.

"Tried To Do His Best." New Orleans.—"Although I differed with President Wilson at times, I believe he was one of the greatest scholars and Presidents that ever occupied the White House. His name will go down in history as a man who tried his best and that is all any man can do," that was the expression of Governor John M. Parker, of Louisiana, when informed of the former President's death.

World Suffers Loss. Miami, Fla.—E. T. Meredith, Secretary of agriculture in President Wilson's cabinet said:

"Not only the United States, but the world suffers an irreparable loss in the death of Woodrow Wilson. No man in our history has rendered more unselfish service or been guided by higher ideals or higher motives. His one purpose was to learn the right thing to do and then do it."

Ramsey MacDonald, British Prime Minister, said: "Mr. Wilson had a fine vision of reason and wisdom in leading Europe to peace and security. It was the 'highest for earth' too high, perhaps, and he has gone before its fulfillment, but there will never be one lost good and in time to come the people will look back upon him and the part he played, and good judgment will be easy, because he will be recognized as one of the world's great pioneers."

"He was one of the best products of American manhood," said Senator Simmons. "His administration will always rank in constructive statesmanship, high ideals, and breadth of conception coupled with patriotic devotion to duty, with that of any man who ever occupied the office."

Frank B. Kellogg, American Ambassador to Great Britain, said: "He sacrificed himself in a world cause. He was a man of high ideals and noble aspirations."

Senator Overman said: "The great lion, a martyr to the cause of civilization, peace and liberty—after four years of intense suffering—has at last succumbed to the inevitable, and the vile tongues of the slanderer will now hang silent. 'His place in history is fixed, and his greatness will grow greater as the years come and go.'"
