HOUSEHOLD HINTS
 Things Our Readers Want to Know

In homes where vegetables, preserves and canned goods of all kinds are kept in the cellar, Red Seal Lye will help a great deal in keeping this part of the house free from odors, moldy air and fermentation.

Motorists use Red Seal Lye to clear radiators of scale and to clean up oil-soaked floors. Car-owners should note, however, that the Red Seal Lye solution should not touch the car, as it injures the paint. Parts made of aluminum should not be cleaned with lye.
