DOG TRAVELS 3000 MILES

Fiction is outdone by fact in the devotion of a collie dog that was lost somewhere in lowa, followed his mas-ter's auto to Wolcott, Indiana, and not finding the owner, returned from Indiana to his home at Silverton, Oregon. The faithful collie literally traversed three states searching for his owner, and arriving at Indiana too late to overtake him, took the long hike back across seven states to the Pacific Coast. He arrived in Silver-ton, Oregon, February 15, having trav eled nearly three thousand miles, banks worn thin, toe-nails worn to the race to reach home.

The owner, G. F. Brazier, a restaurant man, motored to Iowa to visit relatives, carrying the collie puppy along quick and feet bruised from his long in his motor car.

The dog was lost in Iowa and the owner advertised extensively but could not recover him. When he entered the restaurant in his home town he gave joyous yelp and made a leap for his astonished owner.

How he negotiated nearly three thousand miles over highways and bridges across rivers, streets and viaducts in cities is a mystery. The collie will be presented with a silver me dal by the Oregon Humane Society.

RETURN ROAD MACHINE The party who borrowed the Road Scraping Machine belonging to the Town of Louisburg will please return same or let me know where it is so than can send and get it.

The Old Fashioned Cross Roads Country Store

The old general store is the projenitor of the modern department store. Its advantages over the specialty shop and the catalogue house are numerous. Catering to the people of a special community the merchandise is selected with an eye to the particular needs of the people of that community. The large number of lines shown permit a volume of business at a reduced overhead. Prices are, therefore, lower. No where can people of a community supply their needs with merchandise particularly adapted to their needs at lower prices than from their local general store.

We cordially invite an inspection of our offerings.
