TAR DROPS

Tuesday was all fools day. April first brought many kinds of weather. You can forgive him now. It was only an April fool. Cotton sold for 29 cents a pound in Louisburg yesterday. A heavy hail storm was reported from the Seven Paths section Tuesday. Farmers are right much behind in their farm work, due to the late spring. Work has been completed on building the sidewalk on the South side of the river. The one who reads the advertisements in the FRANKLIN TIMES saves both money and time. Quite a good sized crowd attended the drawing of the Ford car at Louisburg Motor Company's Monday. Mr. J. R. Gant has moved his family to the E. W. Pargerson residence on Church street, and Mr. John W. Stovall has moved to the Jarman cottage vacated by Mr. Gant. Mrs. Eva Lumkins, who is in school at the college, spent the spring holidays with her parents at Yonkers, N. Y. Mr. J. R. Gant, of the Tar River section, is expected to be elected to the office of Justice of the Peace for the year 1924-25.

Flowers and Lace Favored for Spring

Even on hats for wear with tailored suits fashion looks approvingly on becoming touches of color and softening trimmings. Nothing is liked better than delicate lace draped about the hat so that it veils the flowers and shadows the eyes, and is extended into a scarf-end finished with flowers, as in the hat pictured here.

To The Voters and Citizens of FRANKLIN COUNTY

I take this method of announcing my candidacy for the office of Judge of the RECORDER'S COURT of Franklin County. And if you will, at the approaching primary, June 7, give me your votes and your influence to this end, I give you my solemn promise that I will do my dead level best to administer the affairs of this office for the best interests of all the people. I furthermore promise that, if elected, the rich and the poor, the learned and the unlearned, the strong and the weak, the fortunate and the unfortunate shall all, in the law, stand on a common equality, and that my enforcement of the law shall be free from partiality, prejudice or favoritism—that the rule of simple justice shall apply to one and all alike.
