TAR DROPS

—Work on the Strickland store on Nash street is nearing completion.

—Miss Lucy Young returned home the past week from Pine Ridge, where she has been teaching.

—Work is progressing nicely on the Junior Order hall and it is expected to hold a meeting Friday night beginning at about 7:45 o'clock.

EASTER EGG HUNT AT FRANKLIN-TON.

It was quite a memorable occasion to the little folks who attended Mary Elizabeth Cheatham's Easter egg hunt, on Mrs. Ballard's lawn. Time flew as if on wings, merriment filled the air as the children swift-footed, darted here and there in search of eggs, which had been hidden over a wide territory. Many bright colored candy eggs were gathered in and lots of fun ensued in the counting of each's finding.

Invited in the dining room where the long table was decorated with lighted candles and fresh orange-blossoms, the children were served delicious ice cream and cake. A dainty favor was presented each little guest before leaving the dining room.

On the lawn again, the afternoon waned ere the children "tired of their play."

Those present were: Elizabeth Mc. Ghee, Camilla Green, Louise Ford, Frances Vann, Sarah Vann, Ruth Jenkins, Evelyn Jenkins, E. J. Cheatham, Jr., Richard Yarborough, Jr., Martha Yarborough, Mary Elizabeth Cheatham.

HARDEE-JOYNER

Wedding Solemnized at Stem Last Friday.

The marriage of Miss Burdette Joyner to Mr. Parrot B. Hardee was solemnized in Stem on Friday, April 18, at the home of the bride's father, Rev. L. H. Joyner, who performed the ceremony. Only the immediate families and friends of the couple were present. Miss Clapp, of Greensboro, played the wedding march.

Mrs. Hardee is the daughter of Rev. L. H. Joyner, who is pastor of the Methodist church at Stem, and for some time Mrs. Hardee was a member of the faculty of Louisburg College, where she was in charge of the art department. The family lived in Oxford a few years ago when Mr. Joyner was pastor of Salem and other churches.

Mr. Hardee, who was formerly of Stem and has many friends there, is now a druggist in Florida. He is the son of Dr. Hardee of Stem.

The wedding came as a surprise to a number of people. Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Hardee left for their future home in Vero, Fla.

Louisburg was represented at the Annual Meeting of the Seventh District of the North Carolina Federation of Woman's Club which met in Oxford Wednesday by the following: Mesdame A. M. Hall, L. Kline, M. Grollman, M. C. Pleasants, J. L. Palmer, F. A. Roth, W. B. Cooke, C. C. Hill, L. D. Egerton, W. L. Beasley, W. Underhill, F. G. Banks, Rice, Jno. Mitchner and Ina Harris and Miss Cathleen Wilson.—Oxford Ledger.

Miss Fannie Coley, Secretary.

MR. J. H. WILDER, OF FRANKLIN-TON, CELEBRATES HIS 70th BIRTHDAY.

Easter Monday was a happy occasion at Crescent Farm, the hospitable home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Wilder, when they entertained some 75 guests, comprising loved ones, relatives and friends.

Sharing in the honors of the day were the twin grandsons, Beachum and Battle Leonard attractive, eight months old sons of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Leonard of Nashville.

The dinner table on the grassy lawn, with its centerpiece of Easter lilies and spread with many a toothsome delicacy, from the favorite "cue" down to the variety of sweets was tempting to the most fastidious appetite. After the dinner hour the children enjoyed an egg hunt. It was amusing to watch the tiniest grand daughter,

WARREN L. HOAGLAND.

Warren L. Hoagland, of Detroit, Mich., formerly with the Burroughs Adding Machine Company, has just been selected by Secretary of Commerce Herbert Hoover as chief of the specialties division of the Department of Commerce. Mr. Hoagland will interest himself primarily in foreign trade promotion of a number of commodities peculiar to American genius including typewriters, motion picture hardware, athletic goods and musical instruments.

Hats and Scarfs Go Hand in Hand

Coats, frocks, suits—all have their scarfs this season, sometimes attached, but more often separate and made of sheer materials and contrasting colors. But hats go farther than any of them and not only have scarfs, but scarfs to match them. Plain and printed silks and crepes are used for these scarfs and for trimming the hats that bear them company.

Will Coach Olympic Team

F. Darrie Ulat, fencing instructor of the Racquet Club at Washington, D. C., who coached the 1920 American Olympic team and who has been chosen in a similar capacity for this year's Olympic team.

In her delight, as she fished two eggs from the coat pockets of Rev. M. Stamps, who sat on the edge of the veranda, an interested spectator.

Two eggs, one tied to a bobbling weeping willow limb and another tossed up into the fork of a large elm tree eluded the eager, little seekers for some time, but were finally spied to their satisfaction. After which games of marble and croquet were enjoyed by the devotees of both games.

Mr. Wilder is seventy "years young" instead of old and enjoyed each feature of the day—participating in most of them and ever his mellow laughter and twinkling eyes testified his keen sense of humor and enjoyment of life. Too early came the parting hour, when the guests departed wishing their host many happy returns.

"MACADAM"

Motorists like to strike a road composed of tar-bound macadam. They are indebted to John London Macadam, a Scotch engineer, for this excellent type of road. Macadam is made of crushed stone, taking its name from its discoverer. Coal tar is frequently added to the top layer of stone. The accent is on "ad."

Father Sage Says:

"Twenty-five years ago learned scientists were debating as to whether a passenger in a vehicle moving at the rate of sixty miles an hour could maintain life. They are still arguin' the same question, except that the speed has been changed to a thousand miles an hour."

When you run an ad in The TIMES we know that you want a good ad, neatly displayed. That is the only kind of an ad we want to give you, but it takes a little time to set good ads—so get out of that habit of waiting until the last day before even thinking about your ad. E E
